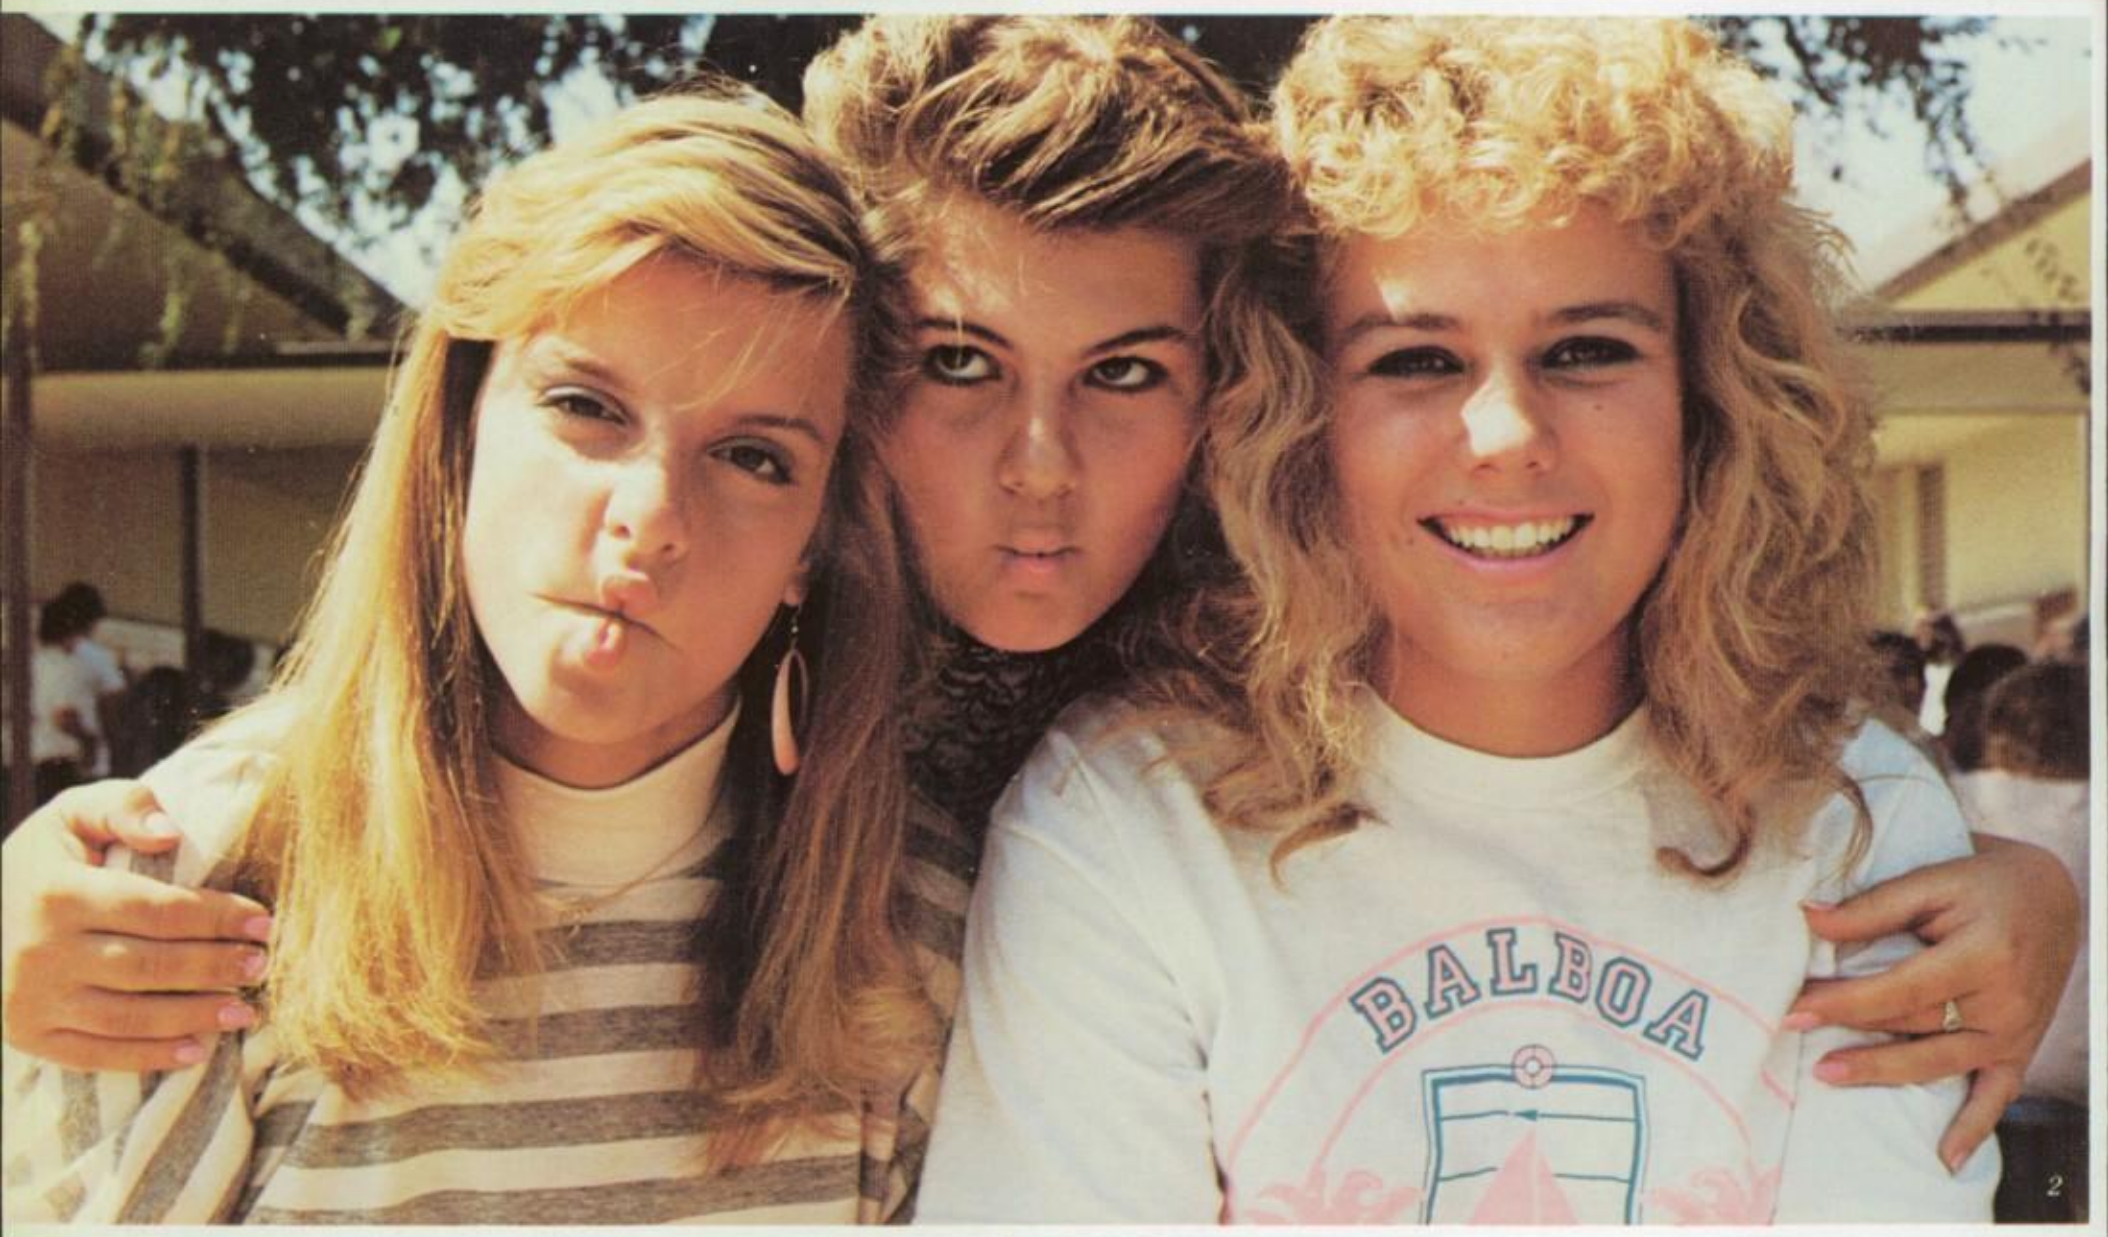
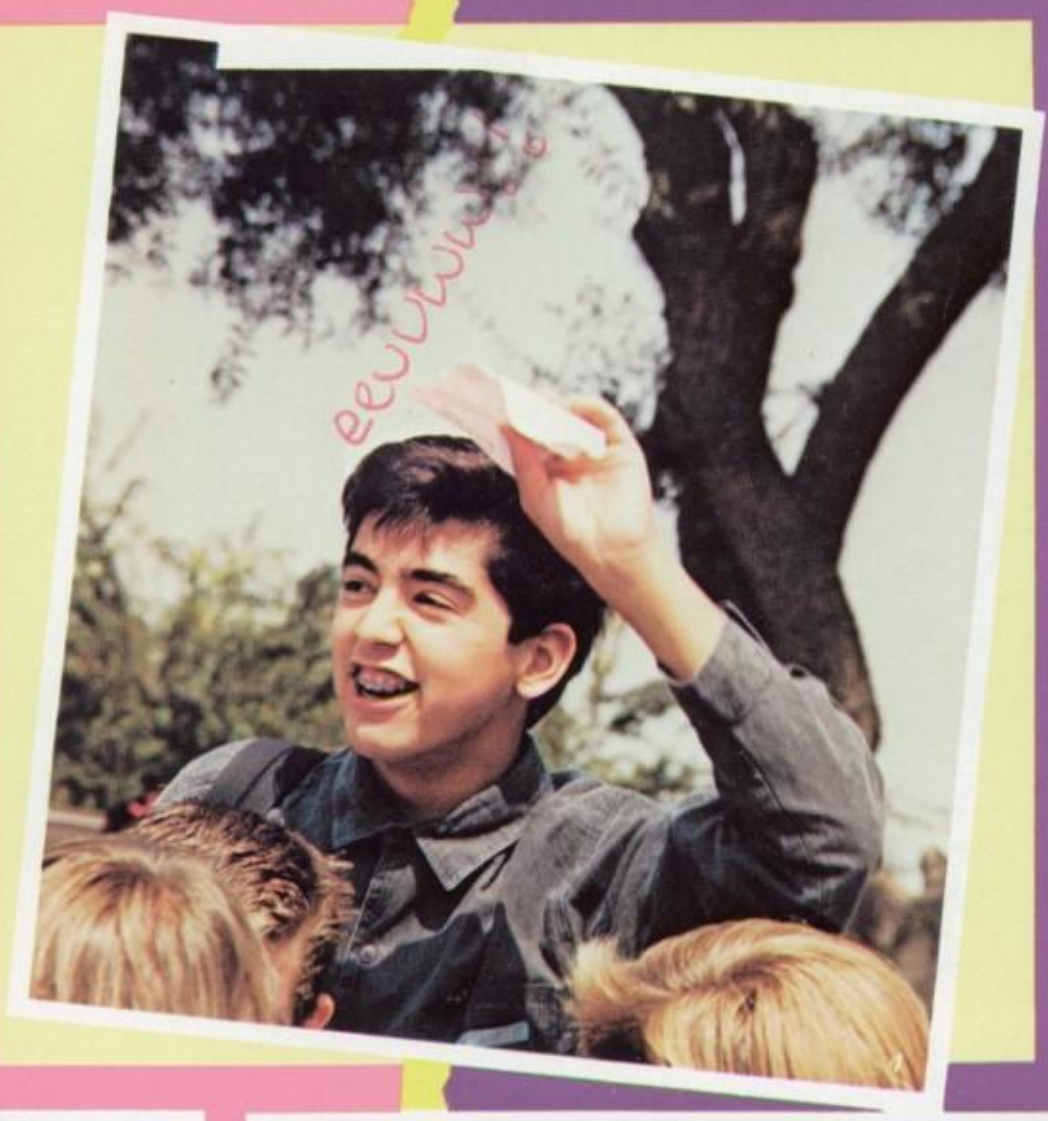
With the closing of summer we look toward other wavelength of life . . . SCHOOL.

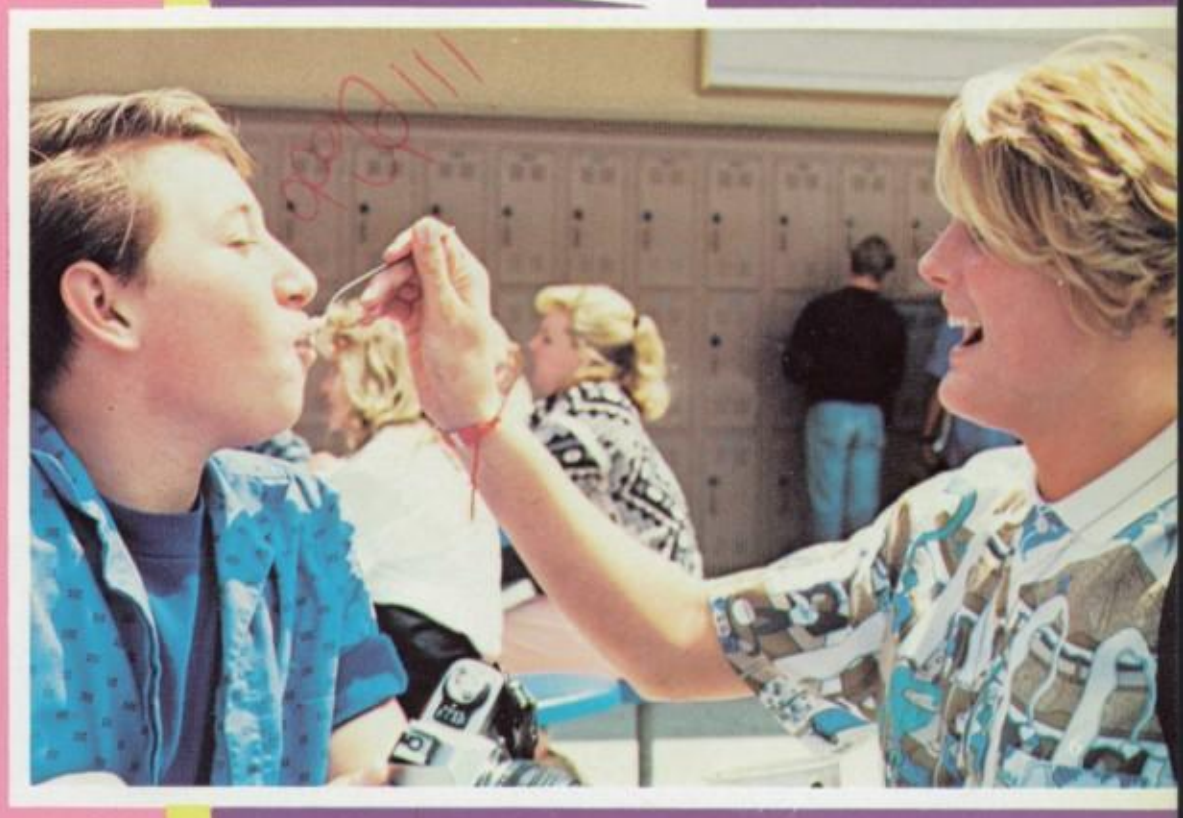
Some people wonder where the time went. Then there are those who realized that school is just around the corner and try to get in that one last party or friendly get together before they go back to the same old grind.

Everyone views school in different ways. Incoming Freshmen look at school as, yet, another grueling four years. Whereas Seniors count off the days before they are walking down the aisle to receive that little piece of paper, which will signify that they're finally finished with high school and ready to go out into the "world."

In the end the students of Pacifica set aside their disappointment of the ending summer and, sort of, look forward to school, because they know that they will find new friendships, learn more about life, and have many special moments that they'll remember forever.







1. A friendly kiss is what Juniors Jenny Johnson and Marieke Elkins share. 2. Juniors Karen White and sisters, Jo[illegible]e and Tracy Ezell appear to be puckering up for that big kiss. 3. Principal Mr. Wise is doing a NO NO. 4. Senior Bryant Bustamante tries to wave down a friend. 5. It's attack of the little people. 6. "Here comes the choo choo," says Senior Leslie Dallape to Junior Chris Wozniak.

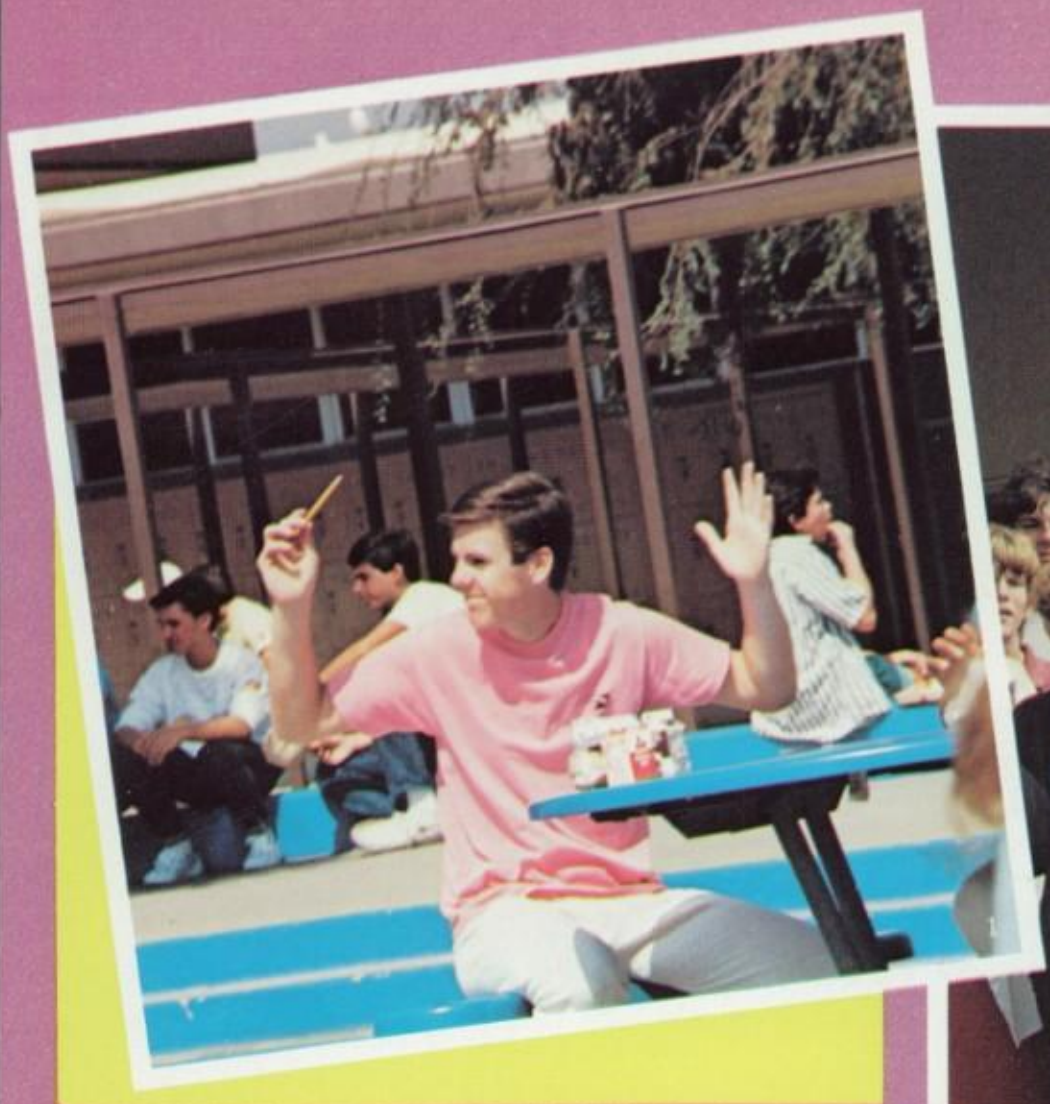
Wavelength

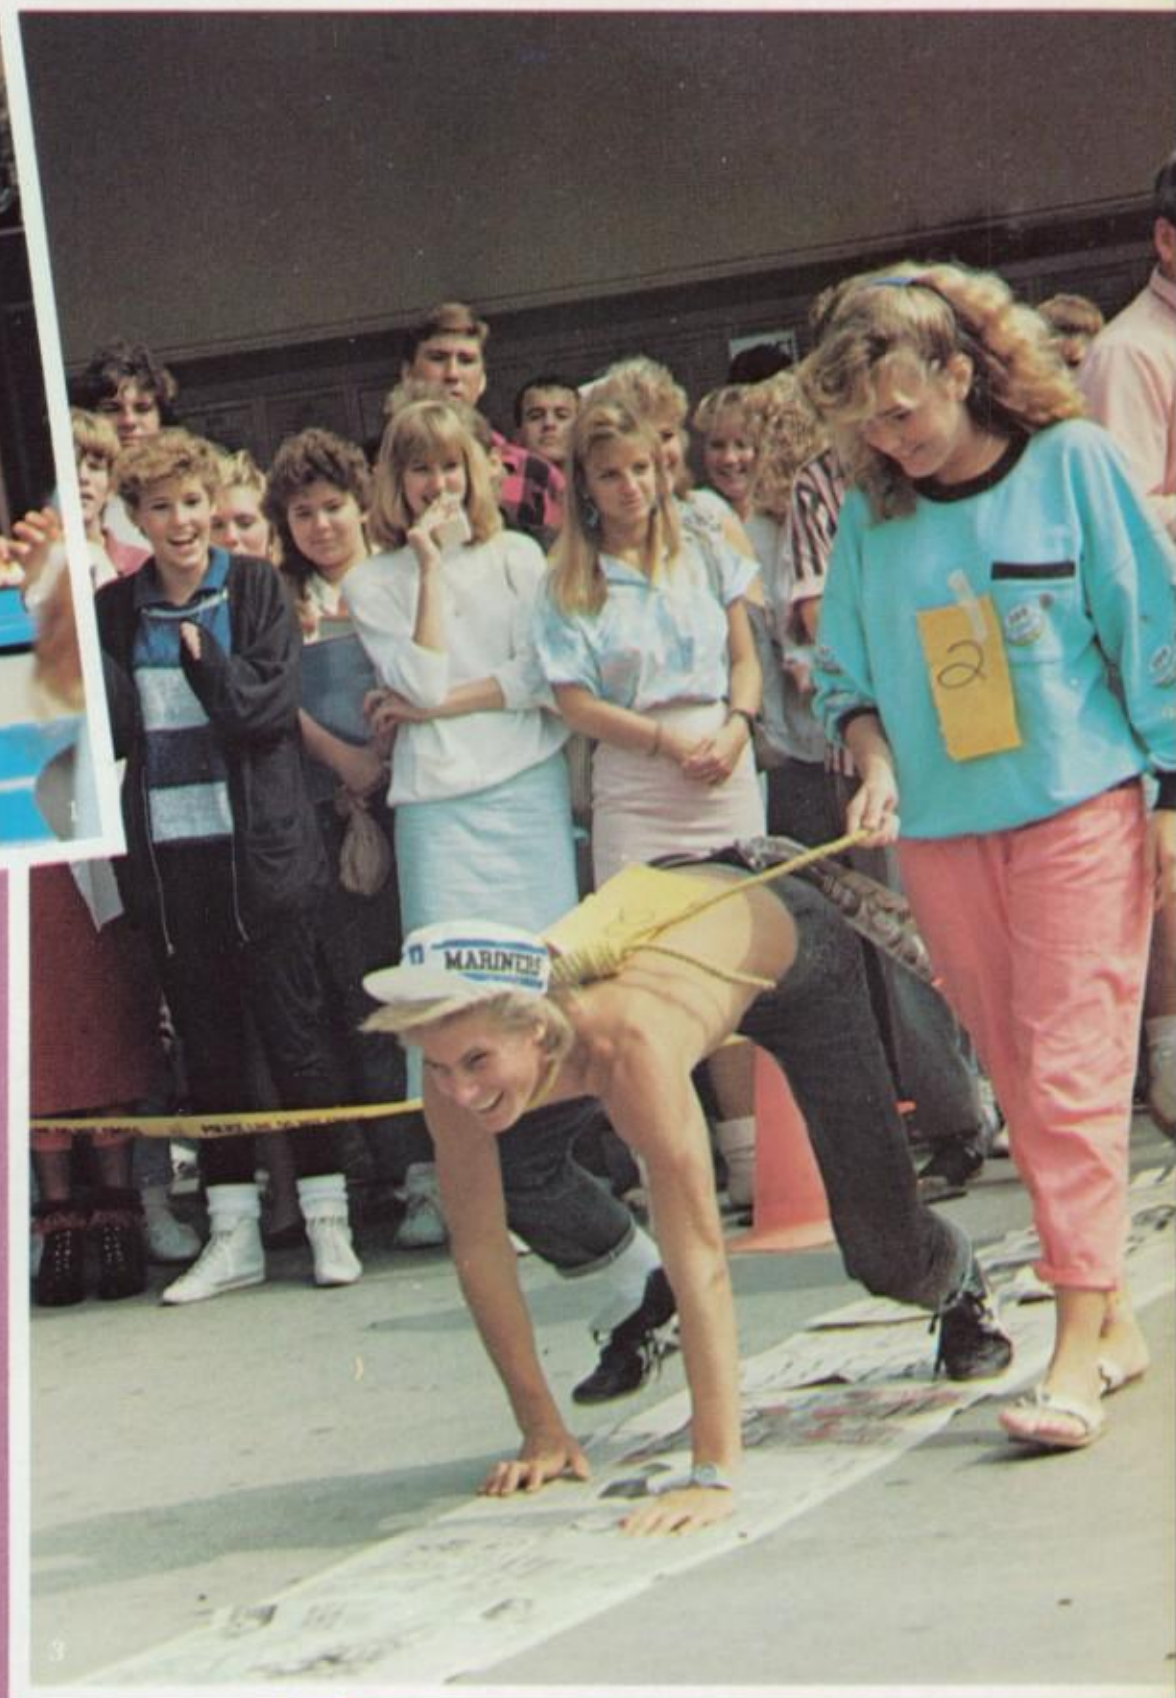
Although the students of Pacifica come from different backgrounds, live different lives, and are basically different, we manage to come together in the long run for student life, spirit, and just to lend a hand to others.

Student life is showed by the school dances, the Winter Formal, and the Homecoming dance. If you participate in any of these events then you are part of the Pacifica student life.

Spirit is basically showed throughout the year in various ways. You could have been someone who participates in those zany lunch time contests, which are held throughout the year. Show it by chanting, yelling, and shouting along with your class during a pep assembly. Of course, there is always the football games. Screaming until your voice goes raw is what the goal seems to be.

1. Surprise!!!!!!!! 2. Show those pearly whites. 3. It Must Be LOVE!





1. Presto! 2. Pucker up baby. 3. I wanna buy me a dog.

Wavelength

Always there are those who love to spend time with others and lend a helping hand when they are in need. Such as when the entire Senior class adopted a school. Sending them Christmas wishes and other gifts. That's what it's all about, because if you are willing to for go your time for others, then those people most likely help you in a time of need.

It shouldn't matter that someone looks different from you or doesn't dress the way you do, because if you go to Pacifica and they do you're all Mariners and should be able to unite together as one.

1. Three Seniors show their spirit at a pep assembly. 2. The Anchor People. 3. Two Sophs. are proud of their class. 4. Junior Brandon Jeffery juggles his lunch towards a table. 5. A.K.A. Popeye. 6. Friends Forever.

SPIRIT

Go BIG BLUE! Show what you can do. Showing their stuff is exactly what Pacifica students did. The over-all craziness of the crowd at the games helped to increase Pacifica pride, but cheering wasn't the only way. During Homecoming week, students showed their spirit by participating in class competitions. When Halloween came around, students showed their spirit by participating in the annual costume contest. SPIRIT is a six letter word that meant excitement to P.H.S. students. The Pacifica Sea Dogs have spirit and they love to show it.

1. Senior Neil Mendoza struts his stuff for the crowd. 2. This is the face of a very hard working person. 3. Senior Jan Marie Visser sits next to Pacifica's mascot the Sea Dog.

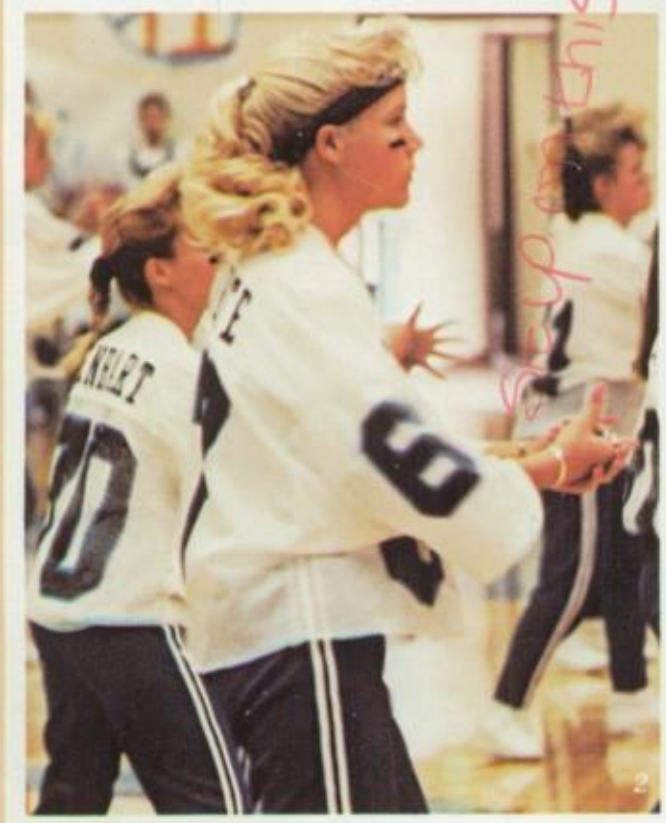
We've Got The Spirit!!!

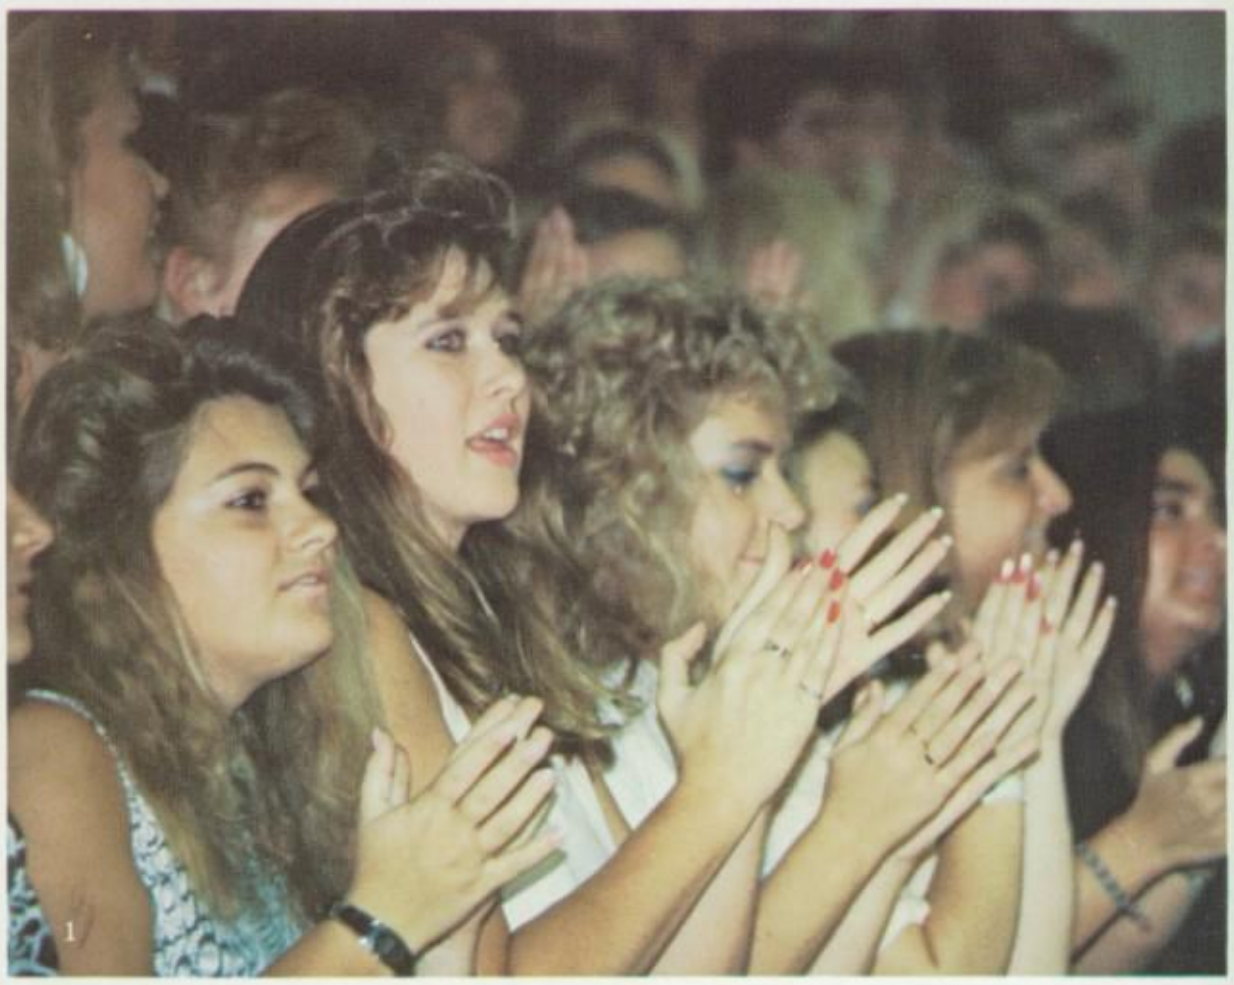
School spirit is what Pacifica had this past year. The seniors to the freshman got involved with supporting of our school's athletes.

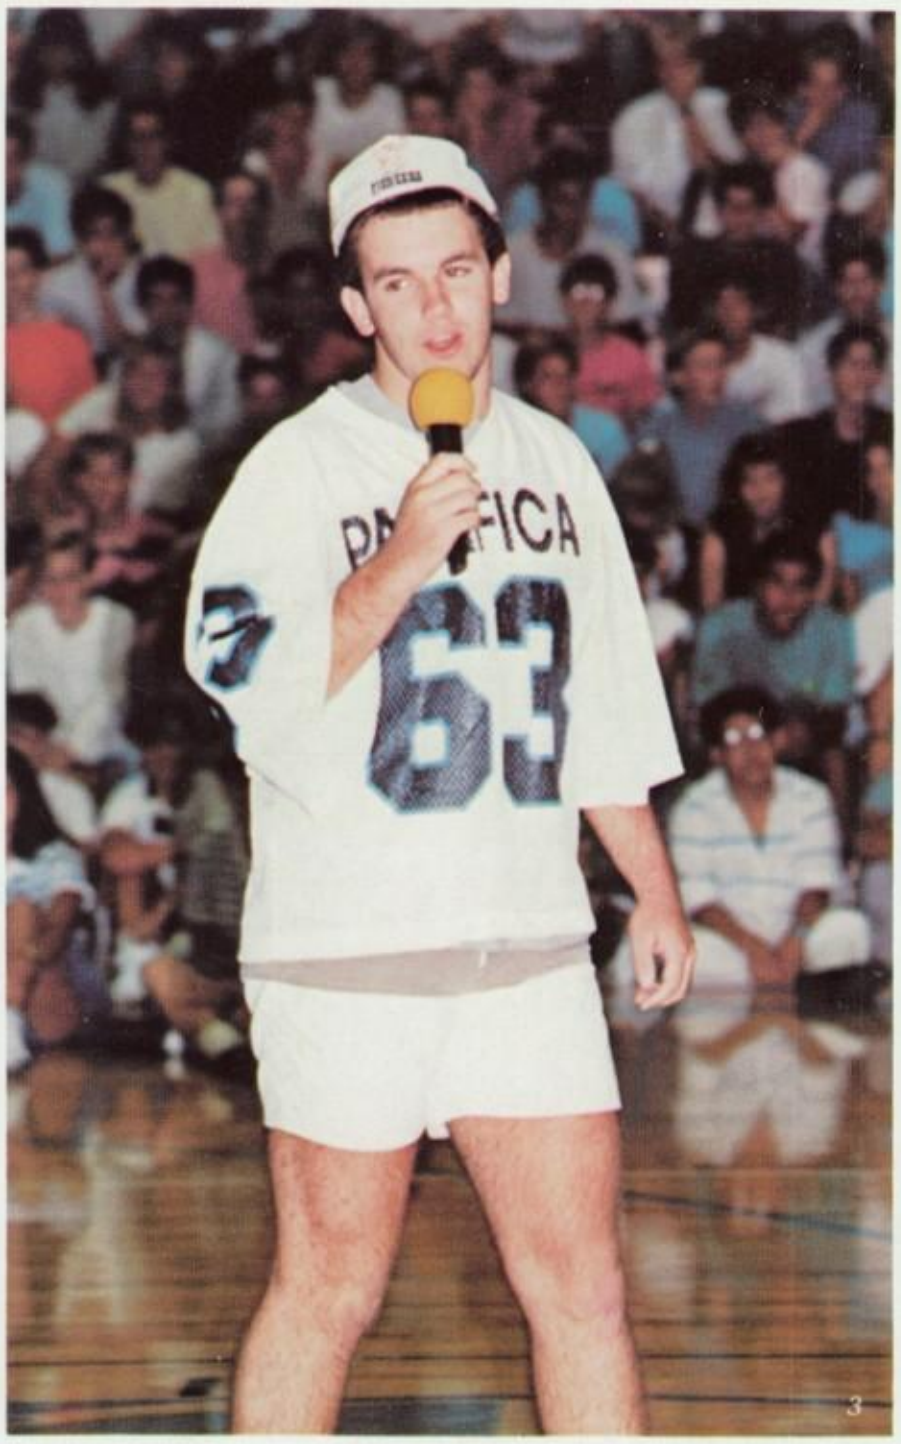
Our pep assemblies took place in the gym and even on the roof! Each one having different activities that selected students from each class participated in. The cheering contests were something that all of the classes did with enthusiasm. The cheerleaders and drill team performed routines for the spirited Mariners. The excitement followed the students out to the lunch period where music was D.J.'ed in the quad.

This year's pep assemblies showed Mariner's pride for our school, and motivated the Pacifica athletes for the victory.

1. Joanne Ezell and Jennifer Christiansen prove how spirited the Juniors were. 2. Junior, Heather Danskin performs with the drill team. 3. Wild and crazy Seniors, Mike Porter, Lenny Bedoya, and Tom Shaffer head for the stage.





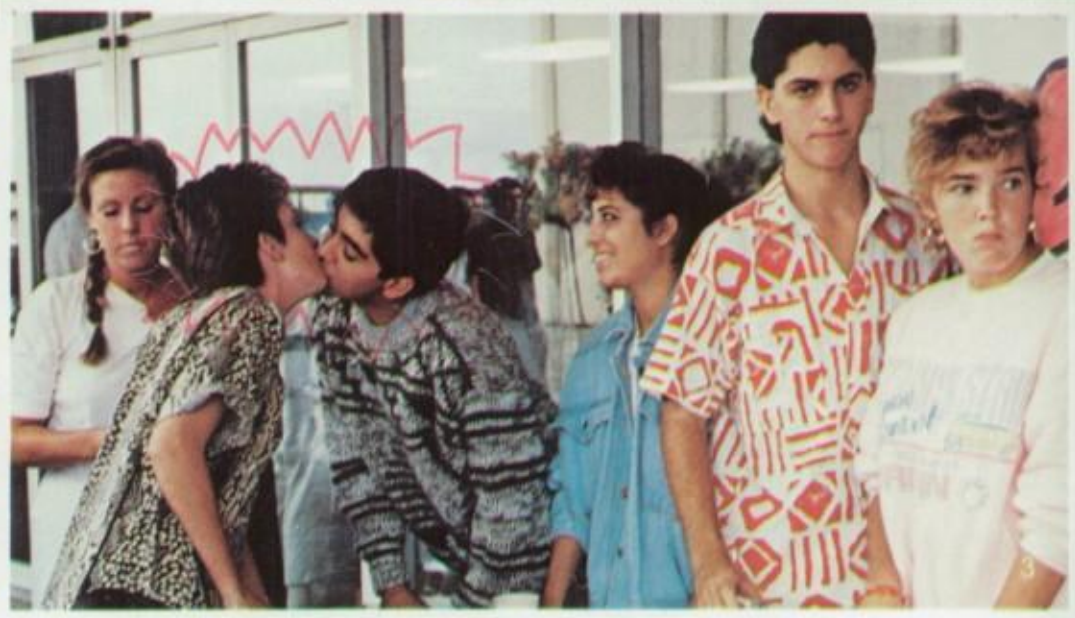


1. Old man Malquist of 1987, and Baby, Alex Levy for the spirit of 1988. 2. Elizabeth Armstrong found the jelly bean! 3. Todd Venemen announcing the game plan. 4. Cheering for the football players Rachel Parker shows her PHS Drill Team pride.

That's The Look

Mr. Spirit!

One of the most memorable weeks during school was the Mr. Spirit contest. At lunch everyday from October 19-23, there were contests held for Mr. Spirit but in the quad. Everyone was out there to see them, but who were they? They were Andy Clark, Mark Jasa, Neil Mendoza, Randy Kounanis, Lenny Bedoya, and Bryant Bustamante. These were the seniors who showed their talents in the events this year. The first day started out with the announcements of the six contestants. The second day was the food relay. Each contestant had to fight their way across the Quad stuffing food in their mouths. Wednesday was the fashion show. Each contestant dresses up like a girl and modeled the clothing he selected. The fourth day was the kissing booth. The crowd's participation in the event was fantastic! The highlight of the week was the talent show.



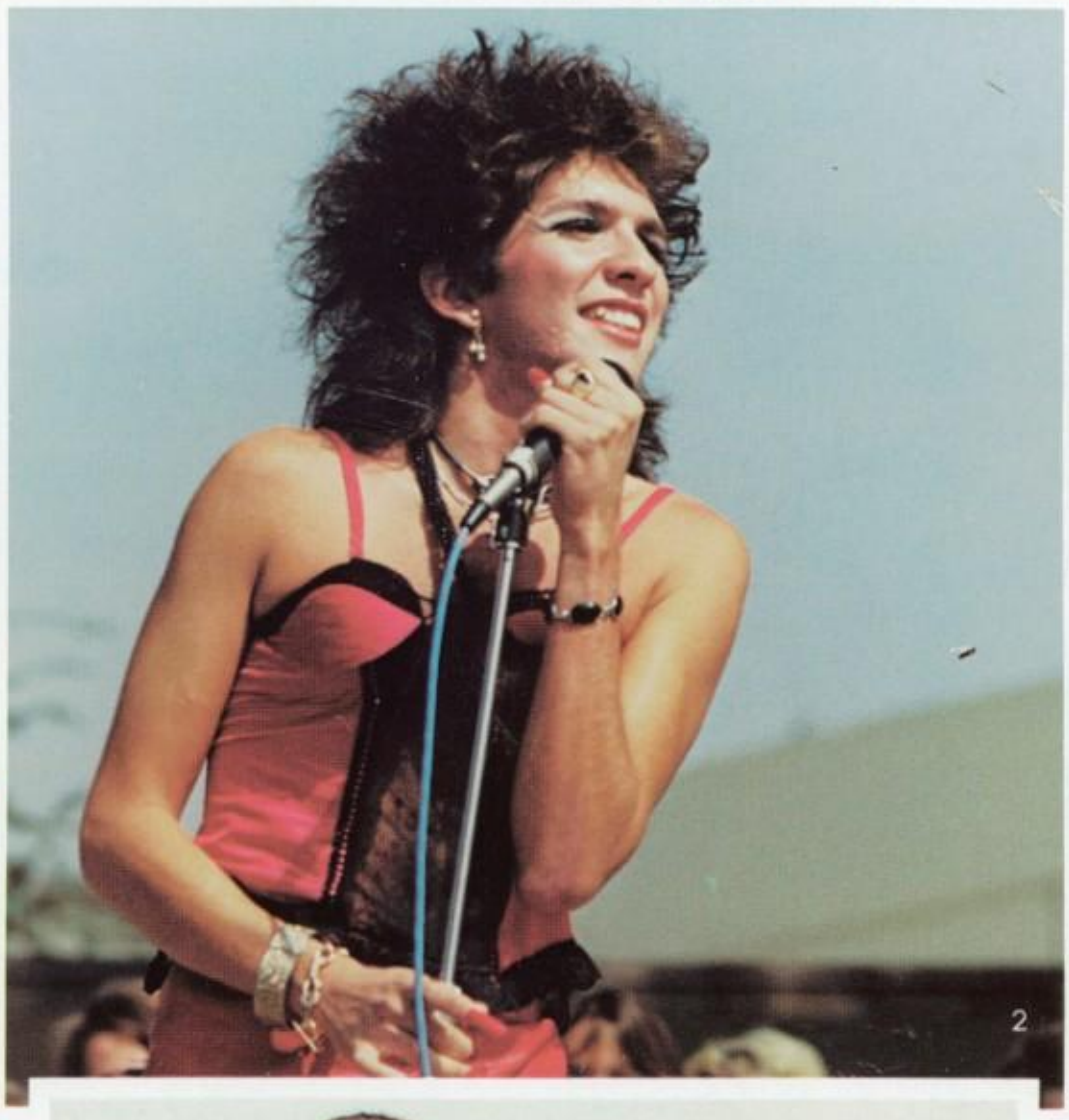
1. Rachel Parker tells Mark Jasa to "Pucker up hot lips!" 2. Pacifica's "Lady in Red," is Neil Mendoza. 3. Carrie Kimball, Bridget Hartnett, Bryant Bustamante, Anita Romero, Randy Kounanis, Michelle Hosea.

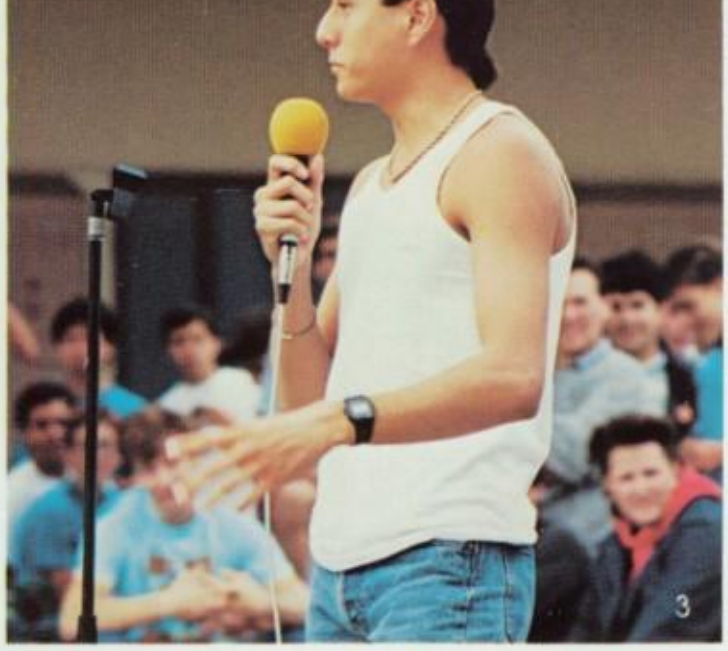
1. Puttin' on the hits; Mark Jasa and Lenny Bedoya. 2. Mark Jasa asking Mr. Bertain for a kiss. 3. Dan Heire announcing the Mr. Spirit Fashion Show contestants.

More Fun With Mr. Spirit!

Our winning Mr. Spirit contestant was Lenny Bedoya. Lenny was the most spirited of them all. Pacifica had announced the winner at the Homecoming 87' Dance. It was a big blast for everyone. Congratulations Lenny!

1. Andy Clark at work with JanMarie Visser. 2. Mark Jasa just told Andy Clark and Randy Kounanis, "Blonds do have more fun!"





1. "Aloooha," exclaims Andy Clark. 2. Neil is a real diamond. 3. Lenny Bedoya expresses his thoughts through a microphone. 4. Bryant Bustamante makes his point. 5. Bryant Bustamante won't kiss Jason Gatherie on their first date.

THE ROARING 20's

HOMECOMING

After Spirit week had ended, the night was here. It was the night we had all been waiting for. Homecoming took place at Bolsa Grande Stadium, on Friday, October 30, 1987.

Pacifica won 7-5 to Kennedy. The "Roaring 20's" proved to be a spectacular Homecoming.

1. 1987-1988 Homecoming Court: Freshmen princess Kim Gordon and escort, Junior princess Heather Danskin and escort, Senior princess Liz Wollman and escort. This year's Queen Kerri Cambell and escort. Last year's Queen Marlene Moore, Mr. Spirit Lenny Bedoya, Senior princess Heather Thomason and escort, Sophomore princess Carrie Parker and escort. 2. Homecoming Commissioners, Laura Merkle and Leslie Dallape show their spirit till the very end. 3. Rachael Parker and Heather Thomason taking time out of their exciting evening for a quick smile. 4. Mark Johnson showing his Mariner spirit. 5. Last year's Homecoming Queen Marlene Moore, this year's Spirit Lenny Bedoya, this year's Homecoming Queen Kerri Cambell, and last year's Mr. Spirit Marcello Surjopolos. 6. Rose McDaniels and Karla White smiling pretty after a great performance.

Homecoming "87"

The Roaring 20's

The crowd sat with anxiety waiting for half-time entertainment to begin. In one minute thirty-four seconds they will soon find out who will be our new Senior Queen. The clock is ticking, the time is here.

The announcement came; and our new Homecoming Queen is Keri Campbell. Congratulations! The crowd began with a standing ovation in honor of the new Queen. Last years queen, Marlene Moore, crowned Keri, and gave her a bouquet of flowers. She was then escorted by our Mr. spirit, Lenny Bedoya, and her father, jack Campbell, to the car to make her final round of appreciation.

The game immediately started after the half-time entertainment was over. The struggle to beat Kennedy became harder than ever. We managed it and the game was over. We managed it and the game was over. Pacifica had a victorious win over Kennedy, 7-5.

1. Spirited juniors show their pizzaz on their rootbeer float.
2. Todd Clendenon and Billy Maurer show off the Mariner spirit they have.

THE ROAR OF

THE DANCING CROWD

The theme of the homecoming dance this year was "The Roaring 20's." The dance was a semi-formal. This event was held in Pacifica's cafeteria. The homecoming committee really made the cafeteria look festive. They had balloons and flowers on every table and streamers all around the room. Many students weren't sure that they were at the right place, because the cafeteria looked so good. One of the highlights of the dance was the revealing of Mr. Spirit and the homecoming court. Mr. Spirit was Lenny Bedoya. Senior princesses were Keri Campbell, Heather Thomason, and Elizabeth Wollman. The Junior princess was Heather Danskin. The Sophomore princess was Carrie Parker. And, the Freshmen princess was Kim Gordon.

The dance started at 7:30 pm and lasted until 11:00 pm. The dance was well attended. The bids were sold at $6.00 per person. Everyone had a good time dancing the night away to A-HA, Madonna, Tiffany, Depeche Mode, Lisa Lisa Colt Jam, Expose, Dead or Alive, Pet Shop Boys, Europe, and many other groups. I think everyone agreed that October twenty-fourth was a day full of much fun and many memories.

TO THE BEAT

MOVE YOUR BODY

Move your body to the beat. That was what the Pacifica student body was doing on September 18, 1987. On this day the annual back to school dance was held. The dance started at 8 O'clock and ended at 11 O'clock. The dance took place in the quad, disc jockeyed by Marcello Surjopolos. There was a great turnout and the dance helped raise money for the Sophomore class. Just about everyone who attended this event had a great time.

1. Lesile Dallape and Elizabeth Wollman, dancing the night away.
2. Jamie Bates and Laura Steele, tangoing in the night.

3. Polly Williamson dancin' to the beat of a different drum. 4. Todd Oldenberg and Scott Huckaby saying, "Hey dudes whats up???" 5. Mike Porter, Joe Rijas, and Johnny Troxel, "Hey look at us!!!!" 6. Chris Shockley, Jim Murphy, and Joe Espinoza. Just havin' fun! 7. Colin Severn and Mike Diaz chanting, "hip . . . two . . . three . . . hip . . .

1. Superwomen, Colin Severn, and Superman, Sergio Arguoilla, are the couple of the year. 2. Earnie and Bert, alias Mariela Elkins and Erila Schnieder, sing for you. 3. Juniors Mike Dikerson and Lisa Schoeing dress up as that classic fairytale Little Red Riding Hood and The Big Bad Wolf. 4. "Come Back To Jamica," are the motto of reggaemen Tim Stevenson and Rick Ortiz. 5. These two look like they just escaped from Alcatraz. 6. Contestants nervously wait for their chance to impress the judges with their costumes.

MONSTER MASH

The halls and quad were filled with an array of bizarre looking Mariners, ranging from storybook characters to The Village People, ready to celebrate the scarriest day of the year . . . Halloween.

Every year the students of Pacifica await for that phenomenon of Halloween. This day enables even the calmness of people to become just a little insane. For some reason all those Dr. Jeckell types automatically become nasty, scary, and a little freaky Mr. Hyde types. This is probably why Halloween is still very popular among Pacifica mariners.

When the time comes to say goodbye to the make-up, shove that costume to the back of the closet, and tame that wild hairdo, every thing returns to normal. That is until . . . next year.

It's A Graveyard Smash

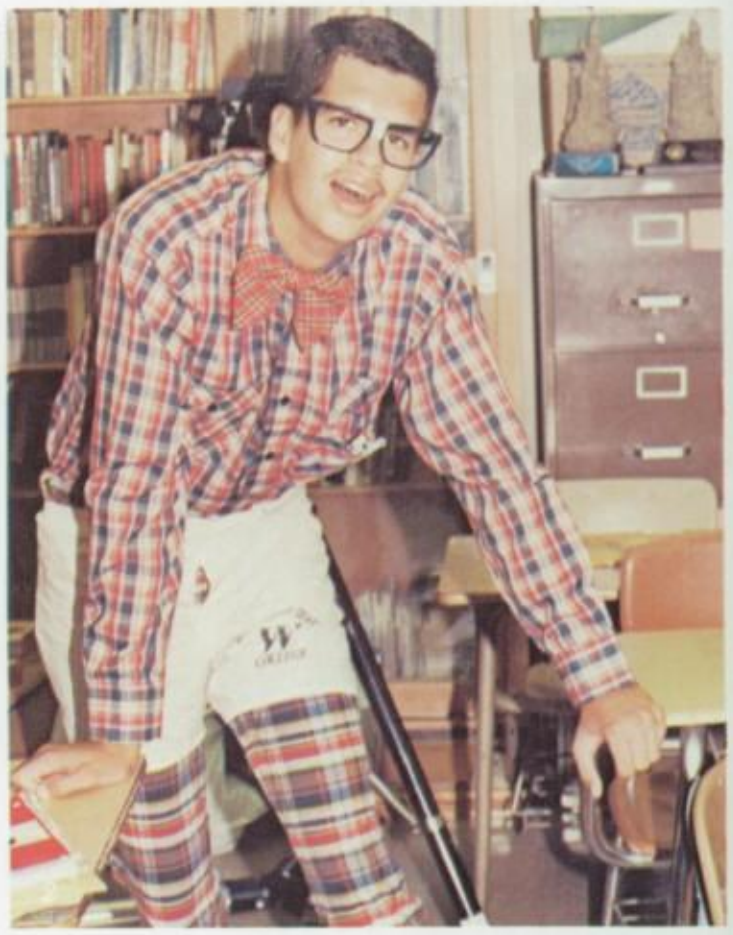
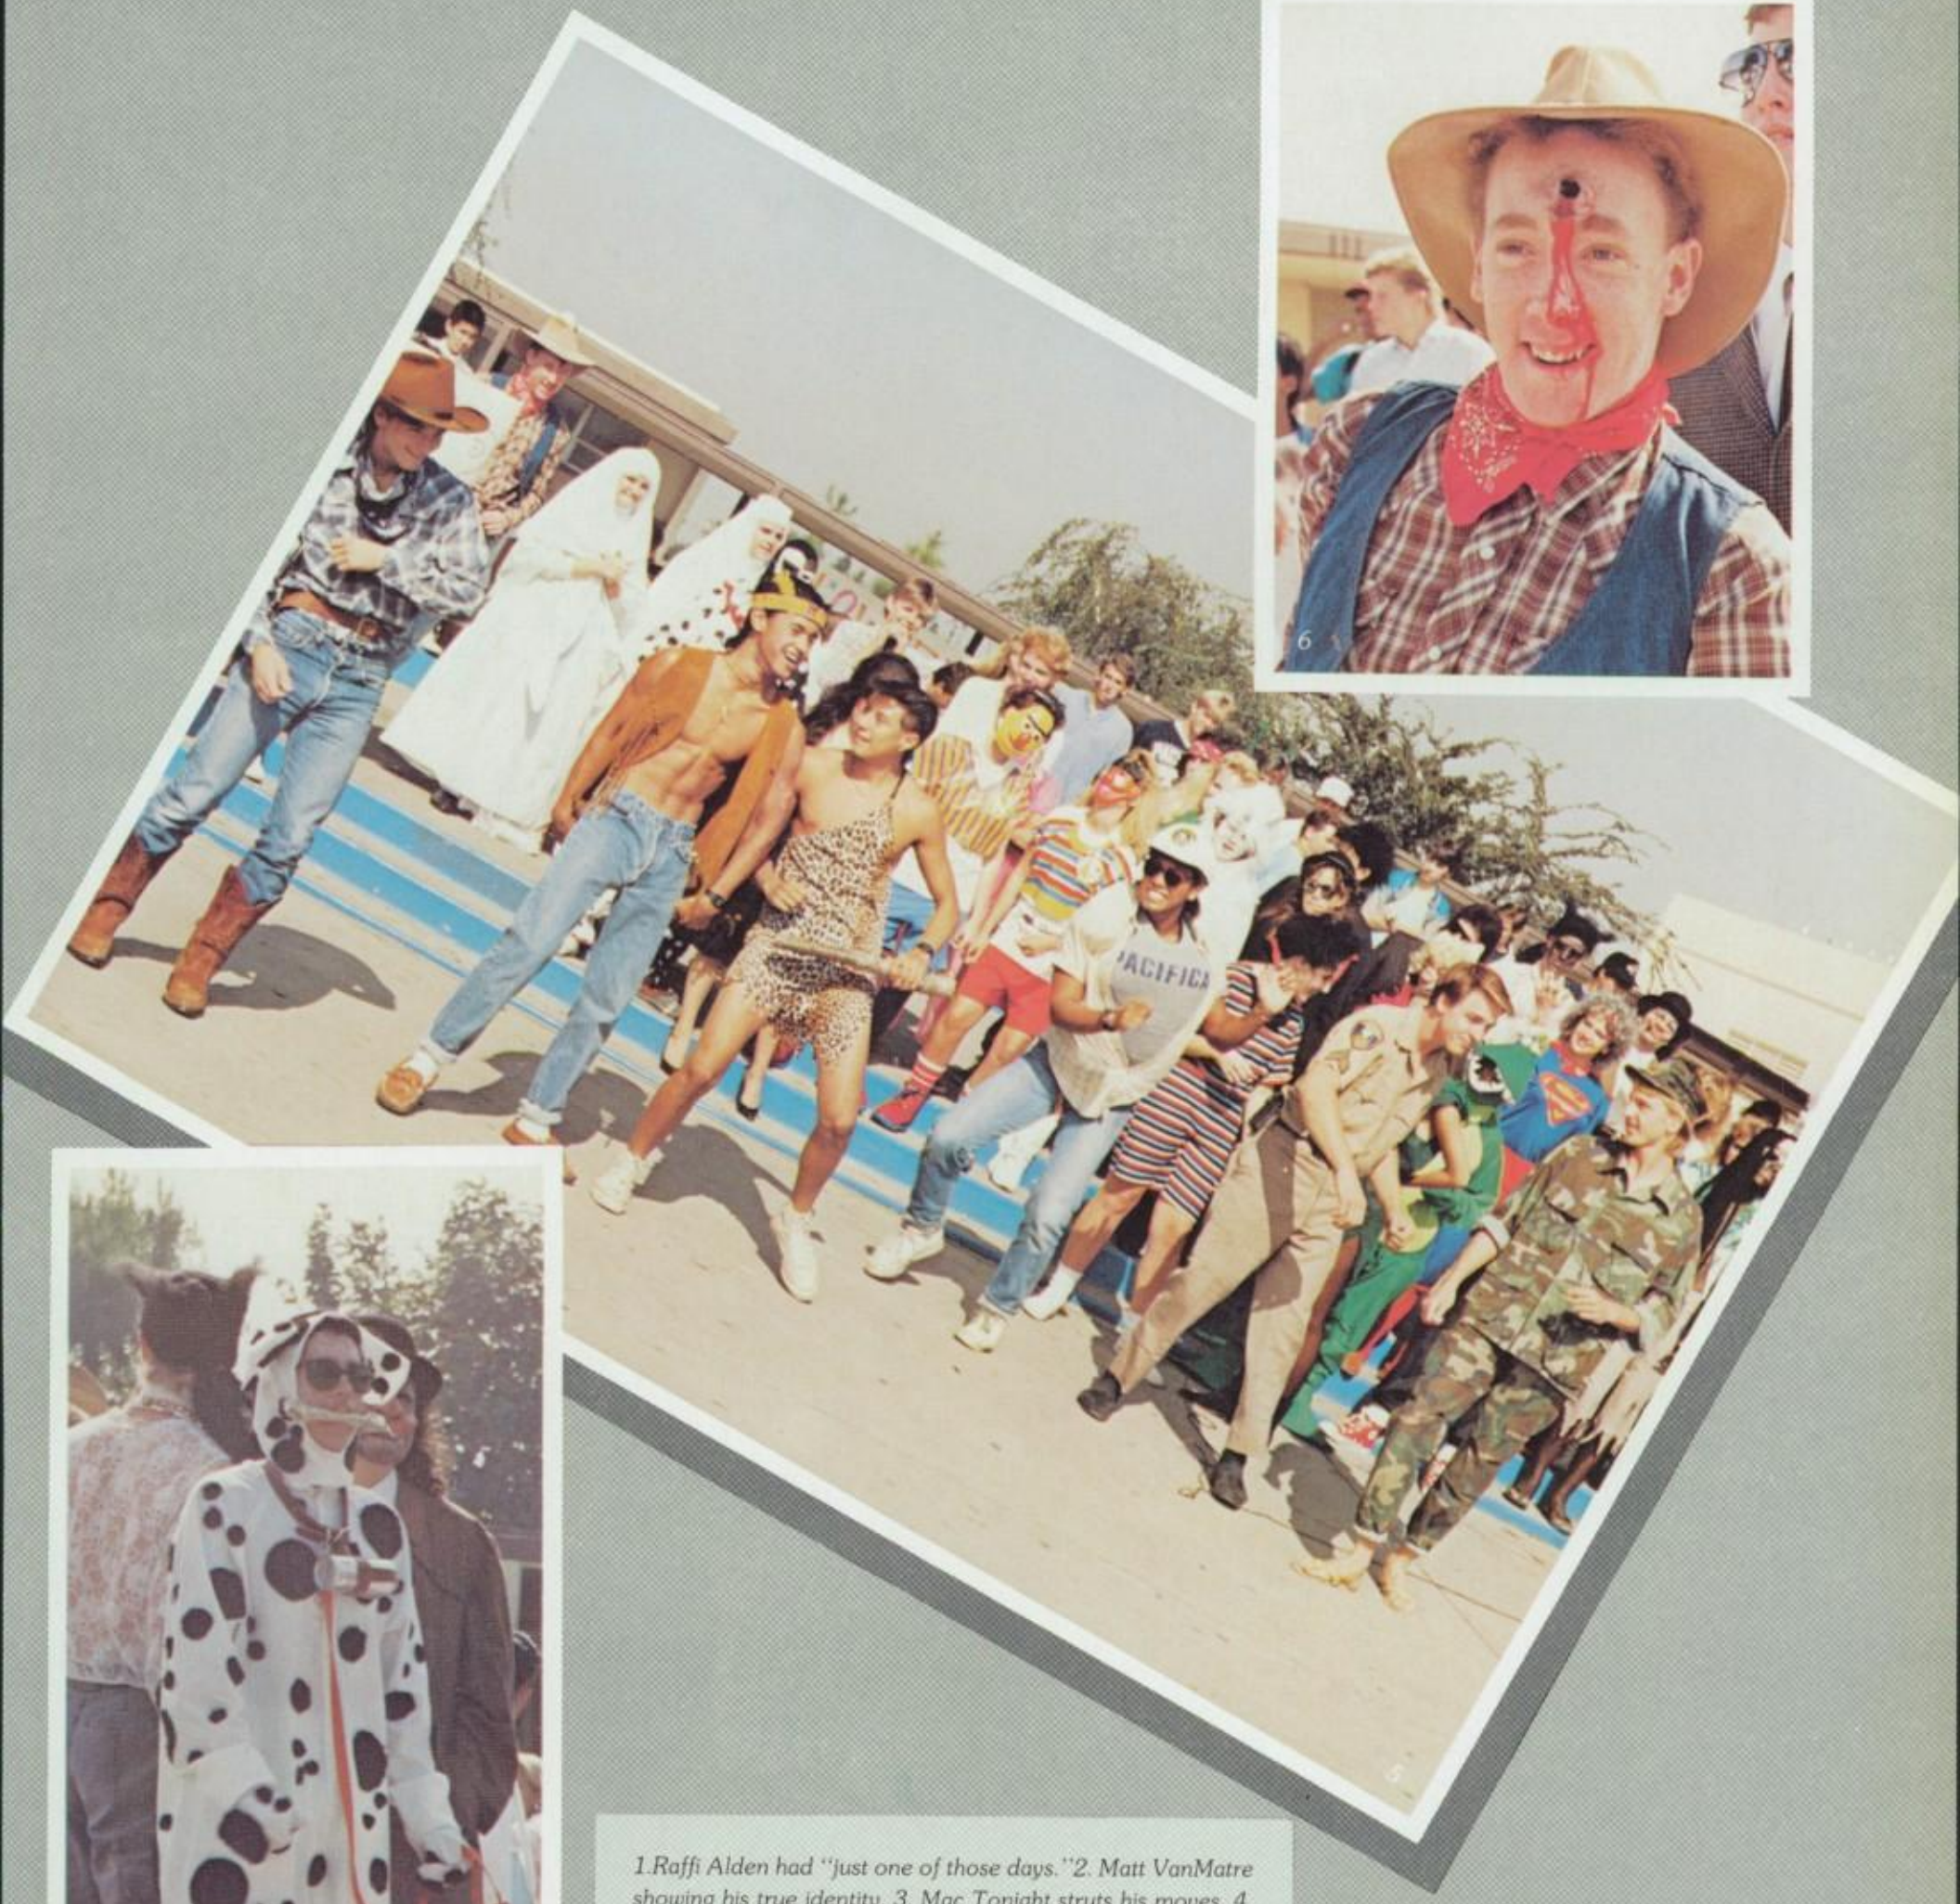
Some Students take months to pick that perfect costume, while others do a night before job. Halloween costumes very from year to year. One year someone might be a plain ghost then the next year come as a fully decked out goblin. It isn't the type of costume you have it is the way you dress up as that certain thing.

As for the people who won the costume contest, it was evident of the effort of imagination that went into these costumes. Taking the title of most original were Tim Stevenson and Rick Ortiz. These two masqueraded as reggaemen. They went as far to make long yarn-braided wigs and wore tattered clothing, which gave the impression, that they just came off the boat. Then there was Matt Vanmatre who gave an excellent rendition of a classic Freshman nerd. This costume was complete with plaid suit and hornrimmed glasses. Matt, of course, got the title of Funniest Costume.





1.Raffi Alden had "just one of those days."2. Matt VanMatre showing his true identity. 3. Mac Tonight struts his moves. 4. Rudy Calderon in his dog act. 5. Village People doing their hit single Y.M.C.A. 6. Steve Sogsti was the cowboy who lost.

GIVE US A SMILE

GIVE US A SMILE despite homework, term papers, tests, and other pressures that go along with high school life, The Mariners quest for fun and laughter remained unquenchable. These uncanny Mariners kept up that unbeatable good humor through even the most difficult times. No matter the situation, leave it to the P.H.S. Mariners to turn the most boring moment into the craziest situations. Many Mariners could not resist eager yearbook photographers.

These high school antics were worth being remembered, and so we present the faces of P.H.S. No matter how solemn you may be at Pacifica there is ALWAYS sometimes you will give us a smile.

1.)Hey! Alex Leeve 2.) Jenny Goodman and Trisha McMann have got the look. 3.) Christina Campbell telling the latest gossip. 4.) Marieke Elkins and Jenny Johnson, just two California girls.

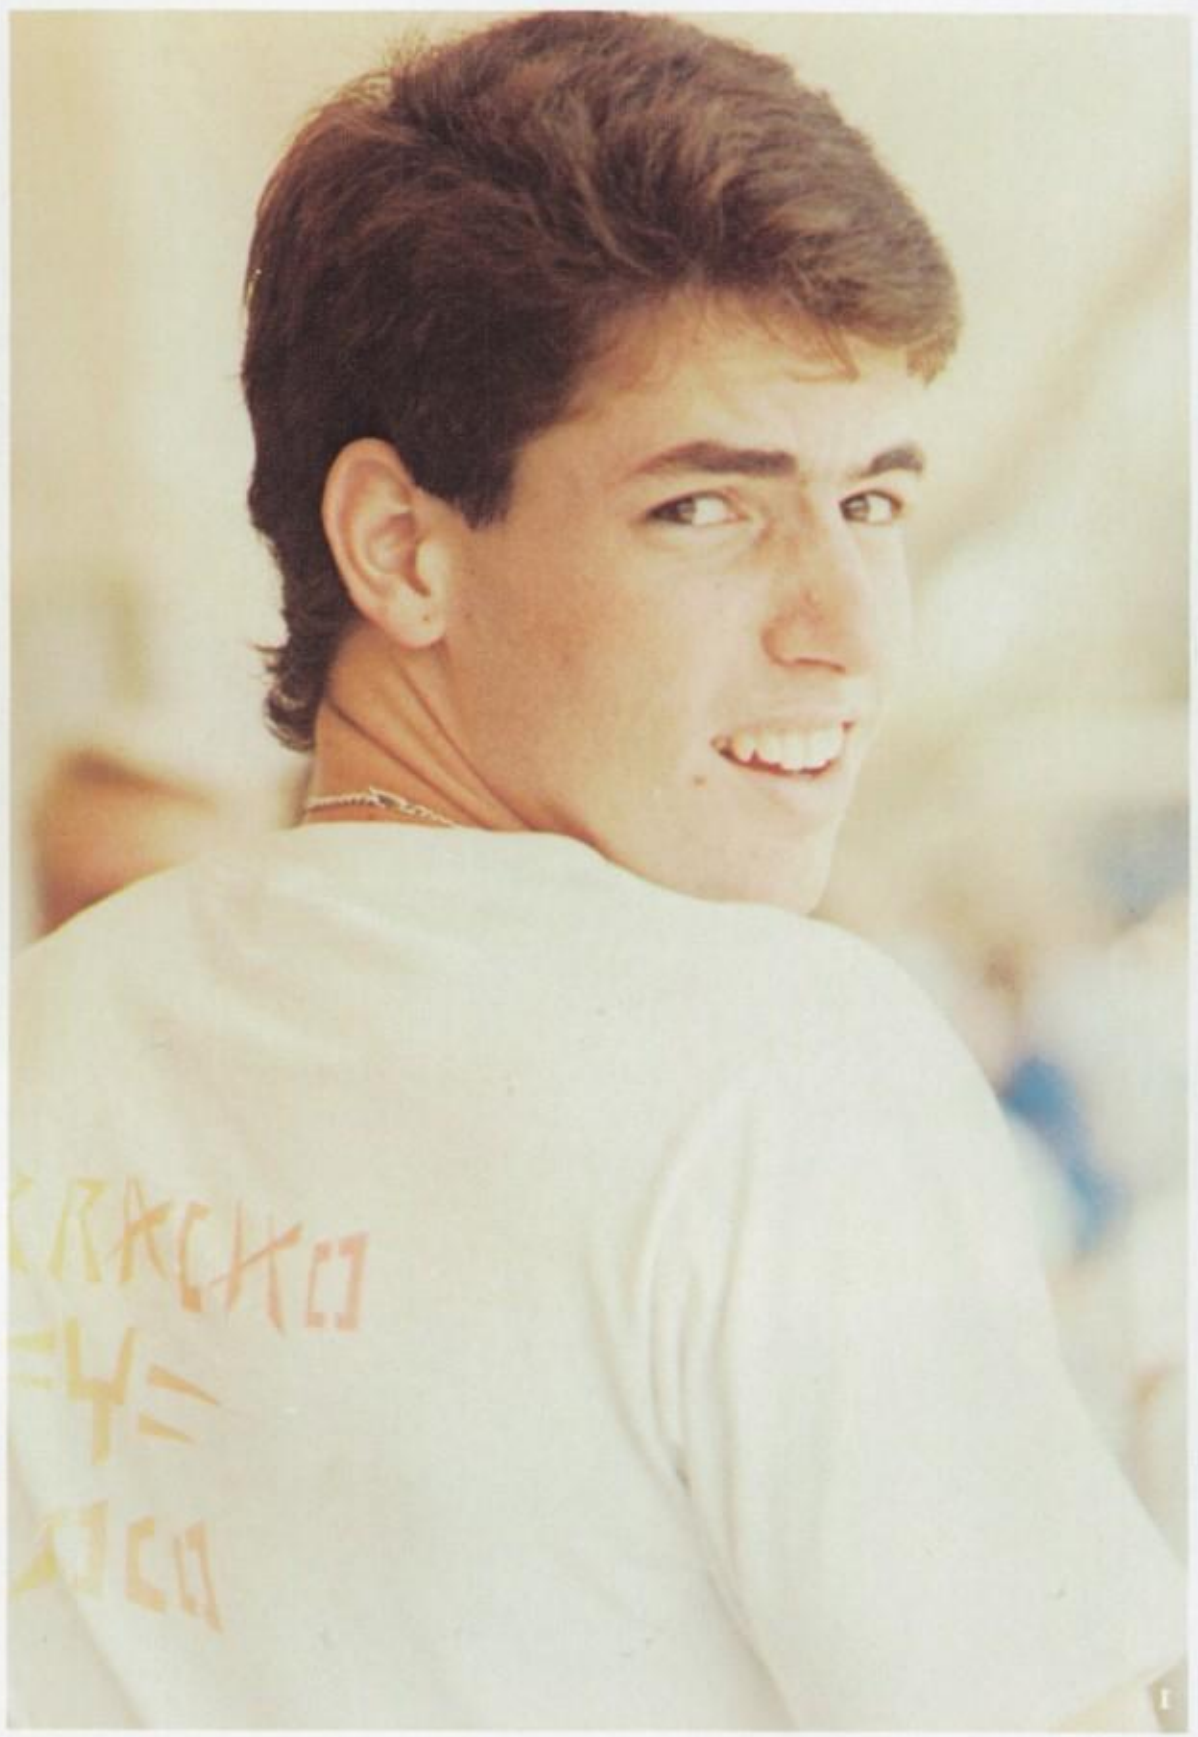
5.) Paul Campbell, Rick Green, Kerry Kersey, and Tricia Graves watching the pep assembly with interest. 6.) Mark Jassa and Charlie Graves observing the pep assembly performers. 7.) Heather Thomason on her way to an A.S.B. meeting.

WE'VE GOT THE LOOK

WE'VE GOT THE LOOK! YES WE DO! Whether it be the zero period zombie look or the 5:30-after-sports look, it's the look of the Mariners. The look of the "Sea Dogs". Blue Black and White is our look.

Faces that are old, new, happy, sad, grumpy, peppy, bored, interested, gorgeous, studious and cute. This school campus is a fun place to "people-watch". And there are lots of people to watch in the halls, on the quad, in class, in the locker rooms, the gyms and the playing fields. These are the faces that are so familiar. These are the faces we love (and some we don't love).

We at P.H.S. do our best to put our best "face" forward. When we scanned our campus the faces we saw came in a variety. A variety that was too good to forget. They're too good to overlook. They've got the look.



1.) Jerry Way looks back on life. 2.) Heather Thompson and Rick Green are standing tall in the quad. 3.) Colin Severin defends "Well I'm a growing boy." 4.) Two Tina's are tickled at the antics of Alex Leeve. 5.) Tracy Ezell, Michelle McGuire, Mareke Elkins, Karen White, and Karla White wonder who the new guy is.

Student Life

Throughout the school year students found themselves trying to fit in all the activities they could. Whether it was going to the football games, hanging out at the movies, going bowling with friends, making their way to the dance clubs, going over to friends houses, or just talking on the phone, they were always active.

If the students weren't out on the town they were working. If they weren't working at Burger King, Taco Bell, Souplantation, McDonald's, Vons, Lucky's, Knott's Berry Farm, Disneyland, or Bridgecreek, they were staying home trying to do homework.

Making new friends or just getting to know the old ones, students adjusted and adapted to their school life. All in all Pacifica Mariners had a very spirited STUDENT LIFE!

1988 WINTER FORMAL

On Saturday January 16, 1988 Pacifica High School students did a bit of "Masquerading." The Co-Ed was held from 8:00 to 12:00 at the Sequoia Health Club. Romance was in the air on that very special night. The bids were priced at $38 for a couple to dance the night away. Music was DJ'ed and guests danced every chance they got.

An interesting announcement that "there was to be bowling at this winter formal." Many were skeptical of such a strange idea, but halfway through the evening most had either bowled a game or gave it serious consideration to go on over and take a look.

The nice thing about the winter formal is that it is the only girl-ask-guy dance at our school. Many girls used it to their advantage to ask that special someone to the Masquerade.

The whole school voted on the Co-Ed king, nominees were Scott Huckabey, Danny Blaue, and Charlie Powers. The tension mounted, excitement filled the air. The 1988 Co-Ed king was . . . Charlie Powers!

It's Christmas Time

Twas the week before Christmas and all through the school, not a student could sit still or obey any rules. The doors were decorated by the homerooms with care, in hopes that the voting results would soon be there.

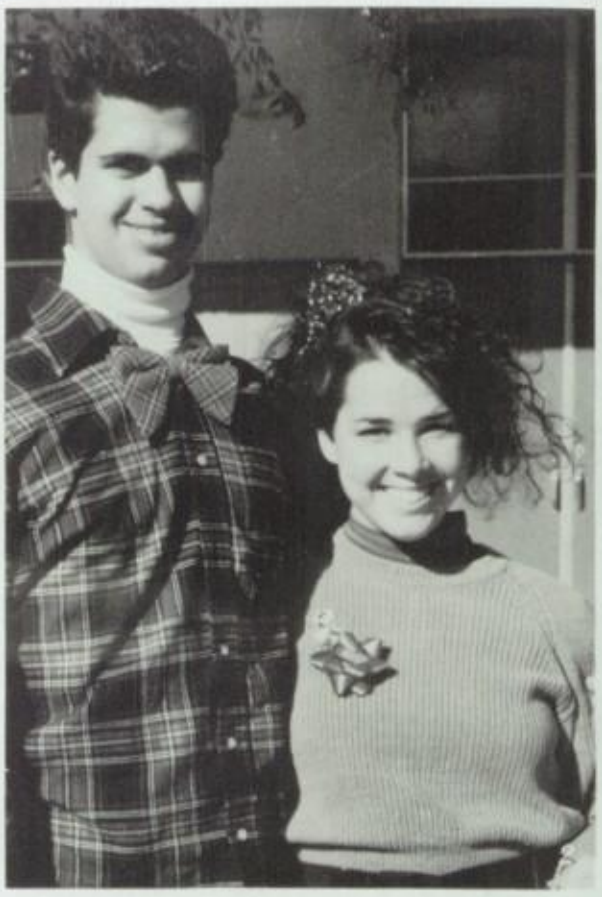
Much food was collected for the Christmas can tree drive. Which filled many Mariners with a sense of school pride.

The seniors wrapped presents for many little ones. In hopes to make Christmas bright to those who have none. Terlaak dressed in his Santa suit, with his cherry red cheeks and his big, black boots.

He passed out candy canes and spread yuletide cheer. Making the children aware that Christmas time is near. Last minute shopping — it could drive you crazy, but with Christmas so close, there's no time to be lazy.

After the bell had rung and I left my last class, I heard someone yell, "Merry Christmas — HAVE A BLAST!"

Daniele Petrick and Alicia Torres



1. Seniors, back; Gina Tovias, Shannon Sheelan, front; Rick Zanbrano and Steve Elmore, take time out to share some Christmas spirit with their adopted children for the day. 2. Juniors Matt Van Matee and Ericka Shciender share a Christmas hug.

Adopt-A-School

This year's class of '88 did something during the Christmas holiday that can be considered more than special.

Every year it is a tradition at Pacifica for the entire school to donate gifts, and for those gifts to go to schools whose little ones barely have none. This year was no exception, but to add a special touch to the occasion each senior adopted a child for the day. The job was left up to them to spread the yuletide cheer.

The gym held the two schools worth of children, who were beyond excitement, and the awaiting seniors, who were bearing gifts.

It seemed where ever you turned you always saw a smiling face. It would have been hard to tell who was having the most fun. The seniors, children, and even the adults themselves were all running a close first.

When the time finally came for the seniors to say goodbye to their little friends it wasn't a time for sadness, but a day they could always look back on. For that day the seniors of '88 spread the spirit of Christmas.

1. '87 Christmas cantree in all it's glory. 2. Christy Campbell, Jill Hunt, Mike Costanza, and Julian Cisneros stand in front on the winning door. 3. It's Santa's little helpers, sophomores, Milton Thomas and Steve Limer.

Have you ever . . .

. . . had a bad date?

Ideas of bad dates:
1. being set up with a boring blind date.
2. being with someone who only talks about cars.
3. being left at a hotel and coming home 4 hours late.

How do you end these dates?
1. STICK IT OUT!
2. a cordial good bye NO physical contact
3. be nice and talk it out.

1. Dave Reed and Sheryl Mann rejoice after a long day of school. 2. Mike Dickerson and Lisa Schoening can't be found at lunch if they aren't together. 3. Chad Noyse and Heather Germain "Look here comes the pizza"

. . . been turned down?

"Best turn downs"
1. Sorry, I already made plans
2. Unfortunately I have a family commitment
3. My mom won't let me go.

"Worst turn downs"
1. I'll call my boyfriend and see if he is available.
2. I'll be clipping my nails
3. but you're ugly!

. . . had a "blast" on a date?

Where did you go?
1. the beach, dancing
2. the movies, and then just hang out with a bunch of friends
3. to a concert.

What is your idea of fun?
1. being with some one you care about
2. full stomach, full moon, and a heart full of love.
3. being with a bunch of friends.

1. Emanuel Jarreu and Renee Ormenston avoid the noise of a PHS lunch and tune into their own world. 2. Could this be sisterly love? Deana Brown, Bill Brown.

CAPTURED COUPLES

1. How can a day of school pass with out a smile from Julian Cesnerous and Vierra Ramos? 2. Keri Campbell and Kevin Ashworth take a break from selling Senior Shirts and show the smile of a president. 3. "What is lunch without a sweet? Make that a Sweet Heart! Ricky Clemens and Jennifer Miller"

New Terms?!?

Going out is a term often used to mean you have a boyfriend, or a girl friend.

Going Steady is the term some of our parents used to mean the same thing. May be they are not so out of date as you thought.

Seeing each other, is a confusing term. It is used to indicate that you are going out with someone, BUT only when you see them.

What ???

The conversation most teenagers come in contact with is that of boyfriends or girlfriends. If you were to ask a kindergartener what they thought of the opposite sex, you would probably get the response, "They will give me cooties!" As the age of the person matures so do their thoughts and actions, "Two little lovers sitting in a tree KISSING." Finally when they reach the age of 12 or so action and maturity start to come together.

Although this doesn't qualify for all of the freshman, they will have soon decided that they are attracted to the opposite sex. Just hang on to those feelings, you will find a boy or girl friend soon, if you don't already have one.

1.Todd Clendenon and Denise Davis show off the spirited look, Sweats of a Flag Captain and a Varsity jacket of a studley swimmer and basketball player. It must be lunch time, 2. Dustin and Yvonne are smiling!

MARINERS ON THE MOVE

With so many different types of students at Pacifica, there were numerous places to go to after school.

For some the demands of after school sports were at their mercy. Attending endless practices and participating in games became daily rituals for many.

Handfuls drove to the beach. While many took to the water in hopes of a good surfing day, others soaked up the fading afternoon sun.

More fortunate Mariners worked. Day by day they earned their pay making sacrifices. Frequently they passed up opportunities to go out with friends in order to earn money.

The rest? Well, they ventured home and caught up on homework. If they had no homework, they watched television.

THE BIG BREAK

"I'm hungrryyy!" was a famous whine that surfaced in many classrooms during fourth period. The anticipation for the lunchtime break mounted in most of us at one time or another. Students made the most of their thirty minutes by talking, flirting, and of course eating.

After being bonded up in a room all morning, teens "let it rip" with conversations of every imaginable subject. Most of them were relating to school and upcoming events.

Lunchtime also gave many a chance to view a certain person they were interested in. The look over-the-shoulder and the more subtle approach, the good 'ol fake yawn, stretch, and look around a couple of ways to look at someone inconspicuously.

The ala carte and cafeteria lines were always crammed with people. Some brought the traditional sack lunch, and others purchased fast food. Pizza was frequently being delivered on campus. The half hour seemed to whiz by, but nevertheless it was filled with a barrage of events.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

It's hard to say who was the major subject in the spotlight this past year. It seemed that everyone who was anyone had their time in the limelight. It ranged from world news, such as the happy trio Donna, Fawn, and Jessica. Ollie had his day in the sun. To the Twins winning of the World Series. The year also had heartaches with the deaths of three great men, Jackie Gleason, Danny Kaye, and Fred Astaire. On a musical note, the year brought about many new and comeback stars. The most talked about group of the year would have to be U2. With George Micheal being the most controversial, with his song "I Want Your Sex." Of course, famous people weren't the only ones to make news. People within Pacifica make news every day. With the different styles of dress, to different hair colors. It really doesn't take much to be in the spotlight. All you, basically, have to do is be your own person.

Fads and Fashion

"You've got the look," or do you? To tell you the truth, it really doesn't matter what you wear because, anything you wear says something about you.

You could be a surfer displaying your latest Jimmy'z shirt to wearing the new styles in Gotcha shorts. If surfing's not your thing maybe sports is more your style. To running in your Fila shoes, to showing off the newest style in Adidas sports wear. If sports gets you down maybe wearing Guess, in acid wash, to Generas in it's wide variety of styles. Anyone of these fads could be your thing. Of course, there are those who follow no fad and invent their own look. But all in all it seems that everyone has "GOT THE LOOK!"

A Look At '87

What makes a year special? It's Special by the events that happen in it. This year will be a memorable one for all most every one.

1) San Francisco celebrates the 50th birthday of the Golden Gate Bridge with over 75,000 people in attendance. 2) Marine Lt. Col. Oliver North, was a key official in the plan to finance anti-government rebels in Nicaragua with money from arm sales to Iran. 3) The President and Mrs. Reagan greeted Pope Paul II when he arrived in Miami to begin a nine-city tour of the United States. 4) NFL football Players along with union supporters walk the pick-it line during the 24 day football players strike.

Ups and Downs

1. American first heard of the Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) six years ago, of which no one survives. AIDS has killed 25,000 Americans and millions of dollars have gone into medical research to find a cure. President Reagan has proclaimed the life threat plague "Public Health Enemy No. 1".

2. Some called it a "meltdown" others called it the "Black Monday". They are referring to the stock market crash when the Dow Jones lost 508 points, on October 19, 1987.

3. In an effort to keep the Persian Gulf open for navigation, the United States began to escort vessels in July to protect them from hostile waters.

4. Kaye Lani Rae Rafco, Miss Michigan, swept the judges away with her Polynesian dance. She was crowned Miss America for 1988.

5. Kirby Puckett and Jeff Reardon of the Minnesota Twins upset the St. Louis Cardinals in one of the most competitive World Series in a while.

ORGANIZATIONS

Without journalism there wouldn't be a school paper, without Publications you wouldn't have a yearbook, and without Mariners Who Care you wouldn't be totally aware of the dangers in drinking and driving. People think that there is really no hard work in any of these areas, but they don't know the half of it. Looking at probably the most important organization on campus, A.S.B., you probably think that all these people do is to sit around. Without these people we wouldn't have pep assemblies, the Winter Formal, or even the prom for that matter. It actually takes months in advance to plan such things. Journalism and Publications run along the same lines. They both give information. One over a years time, while the other over a months time. Mariners Who Care are there to make us aware. They are a club that cares. It really doesn't matter what organization you belong in, but to know that you are there to inform, set up, and to make aware.

PHS A.S.B.

The 1987 ASB cabinet had a successful and exciting year under the guidance of the Activities Director, Mr. Terlaak. The cabinet was dedicated and worked hard to give the student body many enjoyable activities. Among their achievements were the ROARING 20's homecoming theme, the semi-formal, all of our pep assemblies, the CO-ED, and the Prom. All in all, the years activities were all a success due to the effort and cooperation of the cabinet as a whole.

We get NO RESPECT!

As usual the yearbook staff worked hard to accomplish a top rate yearbook. Thanks to the adviser Mary Ann Thompson, Editor-in-Chief Chris Wozniak and Co-Editor Alicia Torres, the staff was well organized and efficient. This is the second year Pacifica has gone with the Herff Jones Publishing company and they have proven to us that they are worthy of Pacifica quality.

Many people do not realize how much time and effort goes into making each yearbook, it's a great challenge and stressful year. When the yearbook is finally finished the yearbook staff has a great sense of pride and accomplishment.

The Anchor!

This year's journalism staff worked hard to produce Pacifica's free newspaper THE ANCHOR. Every month the staff worked on writing and rewriting their articles, until they met the high standards of Mr. Kohne.

They also depend on the photographers: Dave Gritchen, Pat Murry, and Charlie Gage to supply them with pictures. The cartoons of Jim Friese are used to give the papers its unique look.

After the "copy" is prepared it's up to the page editor, Carol Aguilera, Gloria Alvear, Aaron Chessman, Kris Chitty, and Kevin Giem to arrange the page like a complex puzzle. With help of Charlie Gage, editor-in-chief, they produce the final product which is The Anchor.

Don't Drink

and Drive!

"Don't drink and drive," that's Mariners Who Care motto. This club, which happens to be one of the biggest clubs on campus, will be the first ones to tell you that drinking and driving don't mix. M.W.C. are probably the most publicly active club, concerning this matter. With passing out balloons with little messages inside, T-shirts with their own logo, to creating their own stickers. it is easy to see that this club cares about the welfare of people.

CSF

The California Scholarship Federation, known on campus as CSF, is a state wide organization dedicated to excellence in academics, leadership, and service. Each semester membership is determined by qualifying grades and by application. "Scholarship for Service" is the CSF motto, fulfilled at Pacifica by the tutoring program where CSF members help others in all subjects, especially the "tough" ones. If you want to mix fun with learning, get involved with CSF and find out what pizza, Disneyland, computer contests, and candy have to do with good grades.

SPIRIT LEADERS

Spirit Leaders can be counted on to lead the way. PHS has the best spirit leaders around, whether its the Mariner Band, Drill Team, or the Cheerleading squads, these special groups are the spirit leaders that help us show our enthusiasm. Without enthusiasm our school would not be on the top.

The Spirit leaders help get our excitement going, get us pumped up for the game or any school event. Without spirit leaders our excitement would have no direction, no purpose, but with the help of the leaders we are united.

Drilling Straight to the Top

The 1987-1988 Marinette Drill Team consisted of 30 members who were under the instruction of Kay Kubicka. They started preparing in late summer for their competitions and field shows. They also performed these during football season. Every year they will once again hold an entertaining Spring Show.

It is easy to see that with all of their hard work they are truly the best.

Music To
Our Ears

The 1987-88 school year was a good one. Especially for the band. The band placed at every competition they attended. They won two 1st places, one 2nd place, and one 3rd. The band put many hard working hours into practice. You could find the band practicing before and after school; on the football field or in the classroom. Where ever they were you could hear them proudly playing their tunes!

This is one spirited group!

The Tall Flags had a successful year. Under the leadership of Captain, Senior Denise Davis, and Co-Captain, Senior Kelly Carter, with the guidance of advisor Barbara Larkin, the girls worked to be the very best. They worked hard which meant staying late for after school practices and going over routines continuously. They attended various competitions and came home with trophies. It was not hard to see that all the work paid off in the long run.

SPORTS

At PHS there are many diverse sporting activities available to all students. This year the Marner teams have done excellent. This year was Pacifica's first year back to the Garden Grove League. Although, the move was sparked by our decline in enrollment, our strong and efficient teams enabled us to dominate most sports. We are proud of our dedicated Mariner teams and their hard working, caring coaches.

Mariners Hit Hard

A cold, hazy night with tired, beaten bodies that were terrorizing the opposing team. A lineman's fingers sank into the moist ground. The quarterback approached the center. He shouted "Blue Ten! Blue Ten! Hut!" The ball was snapped, the quarterback dropped back, and he handed the football to the running back, and he was off for another spectacular touchdown.

Pacifica's football team was constructed of many talented players. Sophomore Bobby Anderson filled in nicely at quarterback, when senior Shelby Hart tragically injured his knee. Oscar Ravelo our senior running back did a great job of racking up yardage. Of course he couldn't have done it without great blocking from senior lineman Wes Castellano and Todd Veneman.

The defensive attack was led by seniors Derek Hickman, Marc Johnson, Victor Ledesma, and junior Kevin Ashworth.

On August 24, 1970 an extraordinary football player was born. That player was Marc Johnson.

As a tight end his freshman year Marc vigorously attacked the opposing team's offensive lines. Marc often gave minor injuries to the other players due to his high intensity on the field. In his first season of football Marc received the Most Valuable Defensive player award.

Marc was the captain of the sophomore football team. He had a year's experience at the game and knew how to motivate his teammates. Marc again terrorized and taunted quarterbacks and linemen.

In his junior year Marc lettered on the Varsity team. There were many seniors, so Marc's playing time was cut down a bit. When asked how he felt when he scored a point after touchdown he replied,"Like I was on top of the world."

This year Marc started at strong safety. "It allows you to play secondary and tackle on defense," he explained. Marc desperately wanted to beat Bolsa Grande, because he had a great dislike for their quarterback. He had just two quests this season: to make all-league at strong safety and win C.I.F.

Like other teens, Marc enjoys going out with his buddies and having a good time, but there is nothing more appreciated than getting to relax after a rough season.

— Becky Greene

Stars of Tomorrow

The Junior Varsity team had a tough season. They gained experience which was invaluable at Varsity level. The team was coached by Kelly Howard. Two other coaches that gave their all, was coach Rob and coach Brian.

Mark Flatten was the Sophomore quarterback who had to deal with constant pressure.

Some other key players were Tony Nuzzo, Milton Thomas, and Scott Dowling.

In his spare time he likes to listen to rap music, play football, soccer, and watch television. Milton comes for a family of five, he has two sisters. Miltons favorite person is his dad.

The New Generation

The Freshman team had a trying year. Still, they tried their best with Chris Castellano at quarterback. Many of the other teams were much stronger and bigger than Pacifica's freshman team, but they never gave up. In some instances the Mariners were winning until the fourth quarter and the other team would somehow take over the lead. There were some outstanding individual freshman efforts that brought the team together as a fighting unit. Next year the team should be better after having more playing experience.

We're One Step Ahead
Boy's Cross Country

The 1987 Boy's Cross Country Team effort showed up with many victories. Every one improved their personal record's. With their hard work, long practices, and determination the 1988 season will be even better.

What possesses these people to endure the blisters, sweat, and even nausea that comes with this sport? These runners achieve personal satisfaction with meeting their goals and expectations of themselves.

Their long, hot practices began in August and ended at the close of October. During this time ran over hundreds of miles throughout the community, the beach, parks, and nearby foothills.

Some runners who ran exceptionally well this year were Mike Christian, Eric Figler, Chris Limer, and Scott Schnieder. The team worked hard for Pacifica and brought the Mariner's many successes with all of their strength!

Freshman, Scott Schnieder, was born on July 29, 1972. He had occasionally run in 5K and 10K races, but never took practicing up seriously. His family encouraged him with his running. Scott's friends went out for football, but he felt that it wasn't his sport. He started cross country because it is a sport you can do on your own, and just work towards goals.

This past year was the first time Scott concentrated on running for "times" and his work payed off. His best time for a three mile run was 18:38! "I was really nervous in the first cross country race for Pacifica, but once you hear the gun go off you forget about being nervous, and you just go out as fast as you can, and do the best you can do!"

Scott is interested with other sports that have to do with running like soccer and track and field. He hopes to run all four years of high school, and then into college. "It feels good to do well in a race, it feels like you have accomplished something." Scott has a lot going for him and plenty of stamina — all the best of luck to him!

KEEPING UP WITH

GIRLS' RUNNING

Our Girls Varsity Cross Country Team this year got off to a fresh start in the Garden Grove League. They faced new competitors. Even with the usual suffering a runner endures, the entire team still came out looking like winners.

The Varsity Team consisted of Rosanne Agatep, Rochelle Baker, Allene Kim, Suzanne Baker, Pauline Cespedes, Sheryl Mann, and Tonia Wong. Sophomore Crystal Fu, with four medals, led the team to many triumphant victories. Which is shown by their placing second in the Garden Grove League, and also qualifying for the CIF Preliminaries.

Junior Tonia Wong was on the Girls Cross Country Team for the first time this year. She believes in the simple motto of "no pain, no gain." She has a lot of energy which motivates her to run. Even though she expects pain, she doesn't get much. She feels better when she runs. She says it's because the more she practices, the easier it is to run.

To her, running is supposed to be fun. She sees a lot of people who "strive only for winning competitions." Which to her is missing the point. Tonia believes that people should run for enjoyment. This season Tonia won two medals despite her way of thinking about running.

Shooting for

new goals

The 1987-88 Waterpolo Team was off to a great start. They are showing great sportsmanship, which reflected in their play. The return of key players — Tim Stoeklein, Karla Kellogg, Todd Habblitz, Eric Ivancic, David Ibara, Todd Clendenon, Scott McNicol, Brent Wenningkamp, and Gary Nakamura, did help the team immensely. Their hard work and endless hours of practice each day, help them become a competitive team that was hard to beat.

Over the summer many of the players went to a Waterpolo camp at Cal State Long Beach. There, members of the National Team were guest speakers and showed demonstrations to the players. Many enjoyed it and wish to come back next year.

Kicking To Score

Rain or shine, the Boys' Soccer team's could always be found doing drills or playing games. This years Varsity Team, had a great deal of talent and drive. With new coach, Ed Figler, their skills were brought out to their fullest potential. No matter what, they always gave their best to be all they could be. There was no stopping this team when they're out on the field strutting their "stuff." With the help of returning players Kevin Ashworth, Tim Schliper, and Daniel Barber, the season was off to a good start.

Tim Schliper has been playing soccer since the young age of 6. Tim is now 17 and has been playing on the varsity soccer since his freshmen year. Tim enjoys playing all positions but, prefers not to play goalie. His favorite position is forward, because he enjoys shooting goals.

On Tim's spare time he enjoys playing tennis. He also likes spending time with his friends doing things. As a team goal, Tim wants to win league and move on to CIF. As an individual he would like to score the most goals in the league.

Shooting For

New Goals

This years Boy's J.V. Soccer team was off to a great start. With new coach, Ed Lee, they're moving up to the top. You could always find a crowd at these soccer games.

The Junior Varsity Team, once again had a great deal of talent and drive. With much help from, Kevin Malm, Andy Toth, Michael Christian, and Eric Rost, they were off to a promising season.

As usual, many of the games were played under bad weather conditions, but that didn't hold the players back.

With many new players, the team had a new start and the boys quickly proved they had the skills to play well.

Junior Varsity Captain

Born in Hawthorn, California, 17 year old, Mike Wilhite, has been playing soccer since the young age of 5. Mike enjoys playing right wing because it lets him utilize his speed. he has been playing soccer for Pacifica for three years.

This year as an individual Mike wishes to improve his skills so that he will be on the starting line-up for varsity next year. As a team he hopes to improve their skills and have a winning season.

On the weekends Mike plays football with his friends. He enjoys going to the movies, and spending his money on different things. Other hobbies Mike enjoys are Karate, and going to the beach.

4) Eric Rost using his skills to get the ball away.

Kicking To Glory

This year's Varsity team consisted of experienced, powerful, and fleet footed players who were coached by Rob Weil. The explosive offensive players who made an impressive impact upon the spectators were Devon Fitspatrick, Sheryl Koser, Kristin Lee, and Carrie Parker.

The defense was just as imperative as the offensive line. Preventing goals and hustling back and forth took a lot of hard work. These special people were Heather Henkel, Kristin Grady, and Karla Schnieder. The Goalie was Tracy Atherton, who did a tremendous job at preventing goals and disabling the other team to advance.

The J.V. girls soccer team got off to a great start. They won all of their games the first half of the season. Stacey Carlson and Gina Schneider coached the minute team that consisted of 11 players. There weren't many opposing J.V. teams in the Garden Grove League this year, but the competition was still high! Some of the KEY players were Kirstin McJunkin, April Burton, Tami Lewis, and Rikki Drake. All of the girls on the team contributed to the soccer program's winning tradition.

. . . and beyond

Keri Campbell was born January 9, 1970 at St. Mary's hospital in Long Beach. She began her soccer career at the age of six, playing for a local organization known as AYSO. Her position on the Pacifica team was a fullback. When asked what she likes most about the position, Keri replied, "I love it because it's rough."

Keri also engages in other sports away from school, such as snow and water skiing. On her free time and weekends, she works on senior class activities and spends time with her friends and boyfriend. When asked what her future plans after graduation were, she replied, "I'm going to court reporting school and have a happy marriage with a lot of kids."

Freshmen April Burton was born on April 6, 1973, in Phoenix, Arizona. April has been engaging in the sport of soccer since she was at the tender age of 9 years old. Her demanding position on the Pacifica Team is forward, which requires much skill and determination. When asked what she enjoys most about her position she replied, "scoring goals!" One of the goals in April's career is to better herself as a player and make the varsity team next year. April also participates in other sports such as volleyball and swimming, which she also anticipates to better herself. On her free time April keeps herself busy by going shopping and to the movies with her friends.

Within Reach

Volleyball

The Pacifica Mariner's Volleyball team started off with a striking blow; a new coach, a young Varsity team, and a new league.

The varsity team consists of Seniors: Yvonne Kim, Leslie Hood (third year varsity), and Liz Mann (second year varsity) Juniors: Sally Fujimoto, Stacey Long, and Becky Greene (captain) Sophomores: Kim Spalding, Jana Benson, and Michelle Teague.

When talking to the coach she said "They have a lot of talent, and could make it all the way to the top."

The Junior Varsity team consists of; Freshman: Jamie Zwick, Jennifer Sabeh, Katrina Lahr, Amy Creighton, Amie Dilman, and April Burton; Sophomores: Tina Stickler (captain), Cara Hobbes, and Lisa Colon; Juniors: Lisa Sutton, Maricella Alvarez, Chanel Crouse, and Joni Robinson.

The J.V. team did not start off as well as the Varsity team did. They made up for that during the season. "They are a come-back team", stated J.V. coach, Lisa.

The teams finished the season with a new view towards Volleyball, improved rankings in the Garden Grove League, and they reached new heights, unseen by the class of '88.

Volleyball player Becky Greene at sixteen years of age was born on November 7, 1971. Becky has been on the Pacifica Volleyball team for three consecutive years. This year she earned her position as captain and starting setter on the varsity team. When asked what she enjoys most about her position she replied, "I get really excited when I set the ball to a hitter, and my teammate spikes the ball and it lands untouched in the opposing teams court." Becky's major goal this year was to help the team in becoming one of the strongest teams in the Garden Grove League. Becky also plays softball and basketball on Pacifica's teams. In her free time, away from her sports, she has fun traveling to the beach and going out at night with her friends.

Swing into Action!

The Badminton Team did exceptionally well this year. They competed at many different high schools including Garden Grove. The team started the new year out with a new coach Robin Clair, and assistant coach Mrs. Martin. Their long and tiring practices were held everyday from 3 to 5. It's a tough day out there for them but it pays off. Badminton will be held in the summer Olympic Games this upcoming season for the first time.

Coming back in his second year on the golf team, Jason Qualls hopes to go on and become a professional golfer. He started when he was eleven and has been playing the game for four years now. Jason has played in golf tournaments all over Southern California. His favorite course is Mesquite Country Club in Palm Springs, CA. I asked Jason if he has ever made a hole in one, "Yes!," he exclaims, "It was on the 16 hole at Heartwell golf course in Long Beach." He has a 14 handicap which he hopes someday will be in the single digits. His average on a 18 hole course is in the 80's. Jason stated that he enjoys playing golf because its competitive, yet fun!

"Three's Company," said Pacifica's Golf Team. Along with coach Yoak, the team put much dedication and long hours into the sport with the few members they had. Golf requires its players to have skill and concentration. To acquire these abilities, after school practice was routine. Our returning players were Terri Goolsby and Jason Qualls, with Danny Coppin stepping in as a new member.

Look Out Lakers!

The 1987-1988 Varsity Basketball Team did well for themselves. For the Pacifica Classic Tournament, held over winter vacation, the team made it to the finals. They fought hard, but lost a close game to Savanna. Returning players junior Dustin Bonham, a forward, and senior Greg White, a guard, led the team to its victories. Senior Emanuel Jarreau also helped the team as one of the centers. Rick Flores, a senior, was one of this year's best guards. Even though the Varsity Team didn't win all their games they tried their best, and enjoyed themselves at the same time.

Rick Flores is 5'10" and weighs in at 160 pounds. He plays point guard, offguard and small forward on Pacifica's Varsity Basketball Team. He was influenced by his favorite player Mike Jordan, and started to play basketball at Nimitz in Huntington Park. He admires Mike Jordan because of, "his great athletic ability no other athlete can match." Rick plans to go to college and continue playing basketball.

Shooting Stars

This year's Junior Varsity Team trained hard, which paid off during the season. They enjoyed their triumphs that came from determination and ability to work as a team. Some players that were exceptional in the games were sophomore Randy Schultze and juniors Todd Clendenon, Brandon Emerson, Matt Van Matre. The team's efforts made this an exciting and fun season for everyone.

Todd Clendenon is a 16-year-old Junior here at Pacifica High School. He has been on the basketball team ever since he was a freshman. Next year he hopes to play power forward or forward on the boys varsity team. Todd first got into basketball through a friend, Bill Maurer, who was also going to try out at the time. One of Todds biggest influences was his sister, Michelle Clendenon, Todd feels that he and his sister are very close, "We can really talk to one another," says Todd.

When I asked Todd what he would like to do when he got out of high school he said he was going to go to college and major in the Medical Field. He also says that he is going to continue playing sports when he is in college.

One of the best basketball games Todd has ever played in was when he was a Sophomore. His team played against Saddleback High School, and Todd scored 18 pts. and 11 rebounds. Todd has also lettered in two other sports. Swimming his Sophomore year and waterpolo his Junior year.

Learning the Court

Most of this year's Sophomore Basketball Team are returning members, so they knew how to work as a team. As they have found, it all depends on if and how well they use their team work. They have improved since last year. Their coach taught them how to keep their minds on the game and also to re-learn and improve basic skills. The team won often this season, and those that they lost were close. Tim Whalen played well as a center. Two of the best forwards were Anil Hanuman and Mike Maher. Some of the best guards were Darron Tanioka and Jim Reider.

When playing together for the first time it is often a difficult and confusing time, and for this year's Freshman Basketball Team that was no exception. They were just beginning to develop their individual skills, while at the same time it was necessary to learn to work together as a team. At the start of the season their games were generally close. After playing together more, they steadily improved their performance. Brian Hachiya and Don Choi were two of the better guards. Those that did well as forwards were Kevin Gaughen and Kris Murphy. Kris Murphy was also one of the team's best shooters.

Sophomore Darron Tanioka has been playing basketball for six years. This is his second year on a team for Pacifica. He enjoys basketball because it is a fast and exciting sport, where situations can change quickly. He began playing basketball in the fourth grade. As the baseball season ended it turned into basketball season. His friends went out for basketball, so he did the same. Darron's entire family plays basketball (except his mother), so it's no wonder he has found his way into this sport. During the season, he seems to do better in school. With basketball occupying most of his time, he gets his homework done earlier so he has time for everything else. Darron doesn't want to play basketball professionally because he enjoys playing for fun instead of being forced to take it seriously all the time.

Striving For the Shot

The 1987-1988 Girl's Varsity Team had a productive season, not in terms of points but of enthusiasm. The team learned to make the best of what they had. What they had were some great players who did their best against all odds. Mr. Bertain worked with the girls, helping them use their skills to better play the game. Juniors Teri Goolsby and Jennie Ditto were two of the best forwards on the team. Captain Christine Hosman, Lani Matsuda and Joan Maurer helped the team with their skills at guard.

This year's Girl's Junior Varsity Team enjoyed a successful season. They won many of their early games, and those they lost were close ones. On a team of great players, a few had the exceptional ability to stand out, such as: Yuki Matsuda, Sandra Nakamura, and Kathleen Masui. The players learned a lot about working as a team and striving to be their best.

She is also involved with many of the clubs on campus including: Biology, C.S.F., Spanish Mariners Who Care, and is also a Key club officer.

Liz is the oldest child in the family, having a younger brother Joel and younger sister Sheryl. Liz's favorite quote is, "Smile!" In her free time she enjoys talking with her friends, attending youth group, and in general just having a good time.

Girls' Tennis

Has What It Takes

The Girls' Varsity Tennis Team had an excellent season this year. With only four returning players, the team was relatively young and inexperienced and they had a lot of hard work and practice ahead of them. But with all their enthusiasm and determination, they managed to play very well against some of the toughest competition in the league. As a result the team managed to end up the Garden Grove league champs this year. Their toughest competitors were Kennedy and La Quinta. As you can see the Girls' Varsity Tennis Team really has what it takes.

The Girls' J.V. team worked extremely hard this season. Dedication and enthusiasm played as major role in their road to success. Though young and over shadowed, the J.V. team showed great potential for future success in our Varsity squad.

Ellen has played on Pacifica's tennis team for two years. This was her first year on varsity. She plays doubles along with her partner Lani Matsuda.

Ellen commented, "I'm really glad I played tennis this year, especially since we won league champs." She also added, "I had a lot of fun and I'm really going to miss playing tennis for P.H.S."

Serving It Up!

The 1988 Boy's Tennis Teams worked hard to be their best. Their first game was against a tough school, so they got off to a slow start. But after a lot of practice, both teams improved and had their share of wins. Every player played well, but every sport has it's share of standouts. On the Varsity Team juniors Alan Bosch, Trung Do, and David Moore played exceptionally well. On the Junior Varsity Team juniors Eric Berg and Eric Figler and sophomore Phil Noetzel greatly helped the team. All in all the Pacifica Mariner's Tennis Teams faired well for themselves.

Junior Joey Dillman has been playing tennis on and off for five to six years. For the past two years he has become more serious about playing. He started playing simply for fun and recreation. After high school Joey won't be playing competitively, but he does want to go back to playing tennis for enjoyment. When asked who he admires in tennis he said, "All tennis players are my idols because they're rich!" Which makes perfect sense!

Splash into ACTION

Swimming isn't as easy as a sport as it seems. It is often very hectic. With Mondays 1.5 mile runs, sit-ups, push-ups, and then laps in the pool, can get very tiring. Even regular day work-outs are hectic, but this team strives to do their best whether it's just practice or a meet.

This year's 1988 Girls and Boys swim teams swam for high expectations. The teams came out with great success with Coach Hurst and Coach Susan leading the way to victory. The swim meets may have been tough, but these outgoing swimmers did their best and pulled through.

With strong Boys swimmers Simon Côté, Todd Habolitz, and Brian Jue, the team was heading toward C.I.F. finals. For the girls team there was a lot of hard work coming from Julie Wright, Constanza Ocampo, and Sandra Nakamura.

Staying a step

Ahead of the Rest

This Year's track team has proved to be very competitive. The team has many returning first class runners, along with many promising new comers. The returning undefeated 440 relay team consists of Rayford Wills, Charlie Gage, Pat Murray, and Brett Westphall. Pat Murray is also the teams undefeated 440 runner. Rayford Wills is the four year veteran who captures first place almost every time in the 100 and 200 yard dashes. David Ibara competes in the shot put, discus, and long jump. Jerry Way along with Rick Glover are also the teams returning shot putters. Cecil Cesneros is this year's top mile runner, who always places in every race. Karrita Willis is one of the most valuable runners to the girl's team. She takes first in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Heather Thomason and Katrina Lahr are the girls' middle distance runners, in the 880, while Crystal Fu pulls off first place in almost every 2 mile she runs. Rosanne Agatep and Leslie Dallape are the triple jump competitors for the team. Leslie is also a first place athlete in the high jump.

Through his track years he has won, of course, first, second, and third place numerous times in the 100 yard dash. He has received the Coaches' Award, and was lucky enough to win fourth place in the Santa Ana Relays. Charlie is also active in Cross Country, but when asked what sport he preferred he said, "No doubt track, because I like to fun short races."

Also when asked what goals he has set for himself, he replied, "To win the most I possibly can."

Up and At 'EM!

This year was the first year Pacifica had a boy's volleyball team. Although it was a new team, Pacifica had a strong team, with star players as Allen Freeman, Hani Alasker, Tim Stoecklein, and Collin Severn. Mr. Terlaak was their coach. He plays a fair game of volleyball himself. It was a year of pride for both the Varsity and JV teams.

Batting For

When the softball season came this year Pacifica was ready. PHS spirit was backed up with experience and strategy. This year Pacifica's Varsity team was made mostly of Juniors, a few Freshmen, one Senior, and a couple of Sophomores. The girls showed that hard work paid off. They spent every day after school practicing for many hours. If they were not practicing they were working hard winning many games. Pacifica had proved once again in another sport, that we could dominate the Garden Grove League.

The Mariner Junior-Varsity team also did a great job. Showing that they worked hard and deserved the appreciation they got from the PHS student body. Softball, much like baseball, is exciting and entertaining. The Mariner athletes helped to make this season the most exciting. Their persistence in being the best worked. The team never gave up their endurance. It lasted throughout the season, making Pacifica on top once again.

Hilary Lies was the blazing lefthanded pitcher who routed many games for the Mariners this year. The sixteen year old has been on Varsity for three years, having playing for ten and pitching for eight. Hilary has a rare gift, she throws left and bats right. "My first year I played softball, my coach just stuck me in the right handed batter's box (because I did not know what I was doing.) I just learned to bat that way." She is thankful now for the way she was taught. When asked what she enjoys most about pitching, she replied, "I like the feeling of being in control of the game."

When she is not pitching Hilary plays just about any where. She recalls an important game during her freshman year. "When I was in right field, I dove for a ball and caught it in route to a triple play."

When asked what she wanted to accomplish this year, she replied" I want to improve my batting and play more intense defense. We have a young team (mostly Juniors) and I just want us to gain more experience and work together as a team." Hilary predicted a strong finish in league play.

Varsity Baseball Aims . . .

. . . For The Top.

The Varsity team got off to a great start this year. In a tournament during pre-season, the Mariners routed Magnolia 21 to 0. The winning didn't stop there either. They were also victorious over Western in another tournament game. The highlight of the pre-season games was when they played against El Modena. The game was tied 6 to 6 going into the 7th inning when Kevin Ashworth hit a double enabling the Mariners to win with a final score of 9 to 6. Kevin was 4 for 4 that game. Some of the extraordinary players were: Oscar Ravello, Kevin Ashworth, Chris Shockley, Bill Thompkins, and Wes Castellano. These players provided the much needed offense-defense combo which is vital to winning a game. The pitching staff performed exceptionally well. The senior pitchers basically started each game (Todd Long, Jeff McKenzie, and Shelby Hart), but junior pitcher Kevin Prentiss filled in just fine when he was needed.

An 18 year old senior was the target for this interview. His name is Oscar Ravello. For nine years Oscar has played baseball. His freshman year he received the Best Offensive Player award for his talents on the baseball field. This season he was in his third year straight for starting on the Varsity team. He is the starting shortstop. Like many athletes Oscar has had his share of injuries. Last season he developed a case of tendonitis in his right elbow, which made it very uncomfortable to throw. Earlier this year (during football) he seriously pulled a thigh muscle, and he finally overcame it. Oscar had trouble with hip-sliding, because he used to tear up his knees as he hit the dirt. He then switched to "sliding head first, because it's easier on my knees," he explained. He enjoys the game, and then states aggressively, "I like turning double plays." Oscar also was a strong hitter. Last season his average was .310. He would like the team to grab the league title, and have a strong finish in C.I.F. Oscar will most likely play college baseball.

JV AND FROSH/SOPH GET INTO . . . . . THE SWING OF THINGS.

Pacifica had a strong season this year. The J.V. and Frosh-Soph teams were lead by Coach D.V. Gillum and Frosh-Soph Glenn Stevenson. Both teams tried hard and were off into the swing of things. The J.V. baseball team was made up of 15 boys, both sophomores and juniors. This group of high-talented boys gave the crowd something to cheer about. They always did their best whether it was only an every-day practice or an important play-off game. They had a great amount of team spirit which sent them soaring into a winning season. Some of the team's key players were: outfielder Raul Banuelos, second baseman Daniel Barber, pitcher Dan Meadors, and catcher Mark Flatten.

The Frosh-Soph team was also off to a scoring start. This was only the second year of having a Frosh-Soph baseball team at Pacifica. These boys did their best. They weren't as victorious as the Varsity team, but what they lacked in wins, they made it up with team unity, spirit, and motivation. They started off with attainable goals which they set for themselves, and at the end of the season they had reached them. Chris Castellano lead the Mariners' pitching staff.

Afirey, blue-eyed blonde, right hander by the name of Bobby Anderson provoked much interest among those who watched him play this season. The 16 year old sophomore has played baseball for eleven consecutive seasons. He recalls a memorable 'at bat,' "In a West Garden Grove rival game, I hit a rocket about 425 feet to dead center against my good friend Chris Shockley." The 5 foot 6 incher also remembers hitting his first homerun two years ago in a summer league, "When I hit my first homerun I don't even remember touching the bases I was in shock!" Through the years Bobby has changed positions, but he prefers shortstop, "I like turning double plays," he explained. He is an aggressive player (a characteristic he's had since childhood). "I love diving!," he bursts out. "Getting a ball I dove for and hitting a homerun are the most exciting things for me personally." Last season his batting average was .380, (despite his temptations to swing at a high fastball). Also, he was the team captain. When asked what he wanted to accomplish this season he humbly replied, "Hit the ball hard, and be a team player." Bobby was not only a good athlete, but a scholar at that. He maintained a 3.7 G.P.A. throughout football, basketball, and baseball seasons. In the future, the three sport star would like to play college baseball. Since this interview Bobby was moved up to the Varsity team.

CLASSES

CLUBS AND HIGHLIGHTS

In the class section every one loves to see just how good or how bad their yearbook picture really turned out. They also get a chance to take a peek at that special person who they been admiring all year long. The class section also offers a look at what PHS's talent writers and artists have to offer.

As always the senior class comes first. Followed by, of course, the juniors. Then to follow them the sophomores. Last but definitely not least, the freshman. Also in the class section you will find various clubs. Ranging from the Spanish Club to the Bike Club. It really doesn't matter what class you belong to, or what club, all that matters is that you have fun.

1. Friends Melinda Qualls, Paula Florino, and Chanel Crouse share a friendly smile. 2. Junior Todd Clendenon gets into the spirit of things during a football game. 3. Always willing to share a lunch together, front: DeAnna Brown, Michelle Smith, David Jenson, Alex Sarrouf, and in back: Daniel Anderson

Art and Literature

A knock on the door brings a sudden hush
A radiant smile, a rosy blush
Off to seek happiness and fun
Must be back when the clock strikes one.

We cast despair and care behind
Walk with fingers interwined
The night and you and I are young
It's a long way off till the clock strikes one.

Watching the waves encounter the sand
Heart to heart and hand in hand
The moon has riden the course of the sun
A subtle reminder that clocks strike one.

As roads fly past, so does time
With stolen glances our only crime
Though moments are lost, smiles are won
Almost forgetting that the clock strikes one

Twelve forty five and the stars shine bright
Two strong arms hold me tight
This feeling inside is second to none
He asks me, "Why does the clock strike one?"

Minutes are seconds tonight it seems
As we share hopes and prayers and dreams
Of squirrels and sailboats, songs well sung
And clocks that never once strike one.

A smile, a warm embrace, a kiss . . .
A wish to always stay like this
Into the full moon's beams we run
And Somewhere . . .
. . . far off . . .
a clock strikes one.

Come walk with me in the sun,
over the lush green grass.
Come walk with me in the sun,
as the days go past.
Come walk with me in the sun,
where the hills never end.
Come walk with me in the sun,
and forever be my friend.

Jenny Pate, 10th grade

The sun rises on a bitter man lying dormant in a state of numb confusion?
A one man revolution turned inward, and now has the time come to abandon all hope?
A faint voice, still stirring in the far corners of his mind, urged him on.
But alas, the struggle was over, and the end had come, just as always, for men who seek their pot of gold in the affairs of men.
And time was out of time, and love out of love, and the sunset on a lone soul, and an iron heart, as he raised his glass in a toast, to eternity wasted and happiness untasted and closed his eyes to the light, and slept,

forever.

Andy Clark, 12th grade

SENIORS

In the beginning we were struggling Freshman starting the great learning institution known as High School. There were so many questions - "Where's the bathroom?", "Where's room C-11?", and more importantly, "Can I pass this class?" Before we knew it our Freshman year was over and we were Sophomores. We were a little bit more knowledgeable but still didn't know everything. Well, yet, another summer came and went, and it was time to go back to school. This time though we were Juniors. We thought we knew it all. We were upperclassmen now. Once again we struggled through another year, just like the last two years. Then the day finally came and we were SENIORS! All our hard work would be over this year. We would be sent out into the "real world." We are the class of 1988!

The Junior class cabinet had a very successful year. Starting off with just about no money at all, to putting on a sensational Prom, and coming out ahead!! They had many fund-raisers, and even a junior work day. Which was a new, fun, and exciting experience and fund-raiser for the junior class. As you can see, the junior class cabinet showed lots of spirit, determination, and much dedication, and all of their success puts them at the top where they belong.

Heather Danskin was born on June 29, 1971 and on October 24, 1987, she was announced Junior Princess at the Homecoming Dance. This was a great honor and surprise for her. As a matter of fact she quoted, "I was really shocked at first, but then I was happier than ever." Heather has been a three member of the Pacifica Drill team and hopes next year to become captain. If you ever want to talk to Heather, be sure to ask her, "Did you ever throw rocks over the fence at old ladies?"

Two juniors with lots of Pride and Spirit are Kevin Prentiss and Kevin Ashworth. These two mighty Mariners have played varsity football for two consecutive years now. They will be a big part in our future success in football.

Two of our freshman cheerleaders, Julie Salazar and Yuki Matsuda, have inspired our class this year. They showed their enthusiasm at football games, basketball games, and especially at the pep assemblies. Their spirit, along with the other freshman cheerleaders, helped us win the class yell from our competitors, the seniors, juniors, and sophomores.

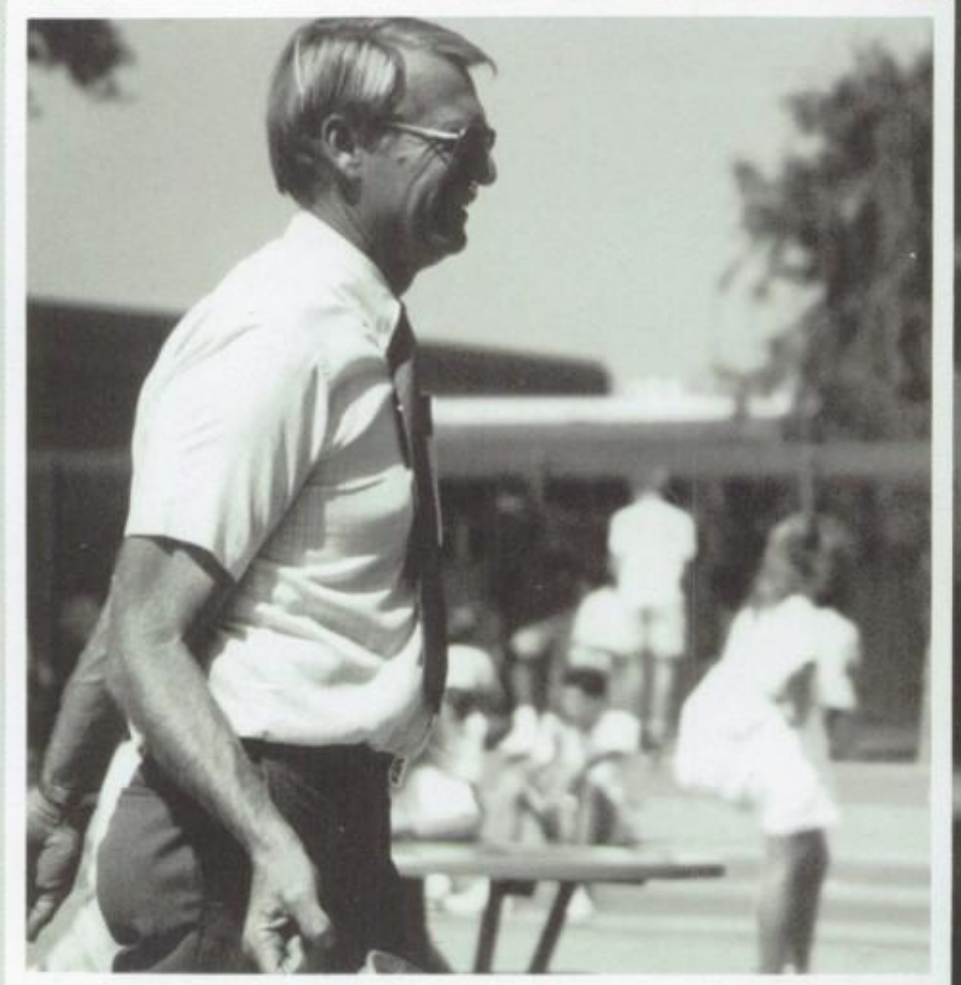
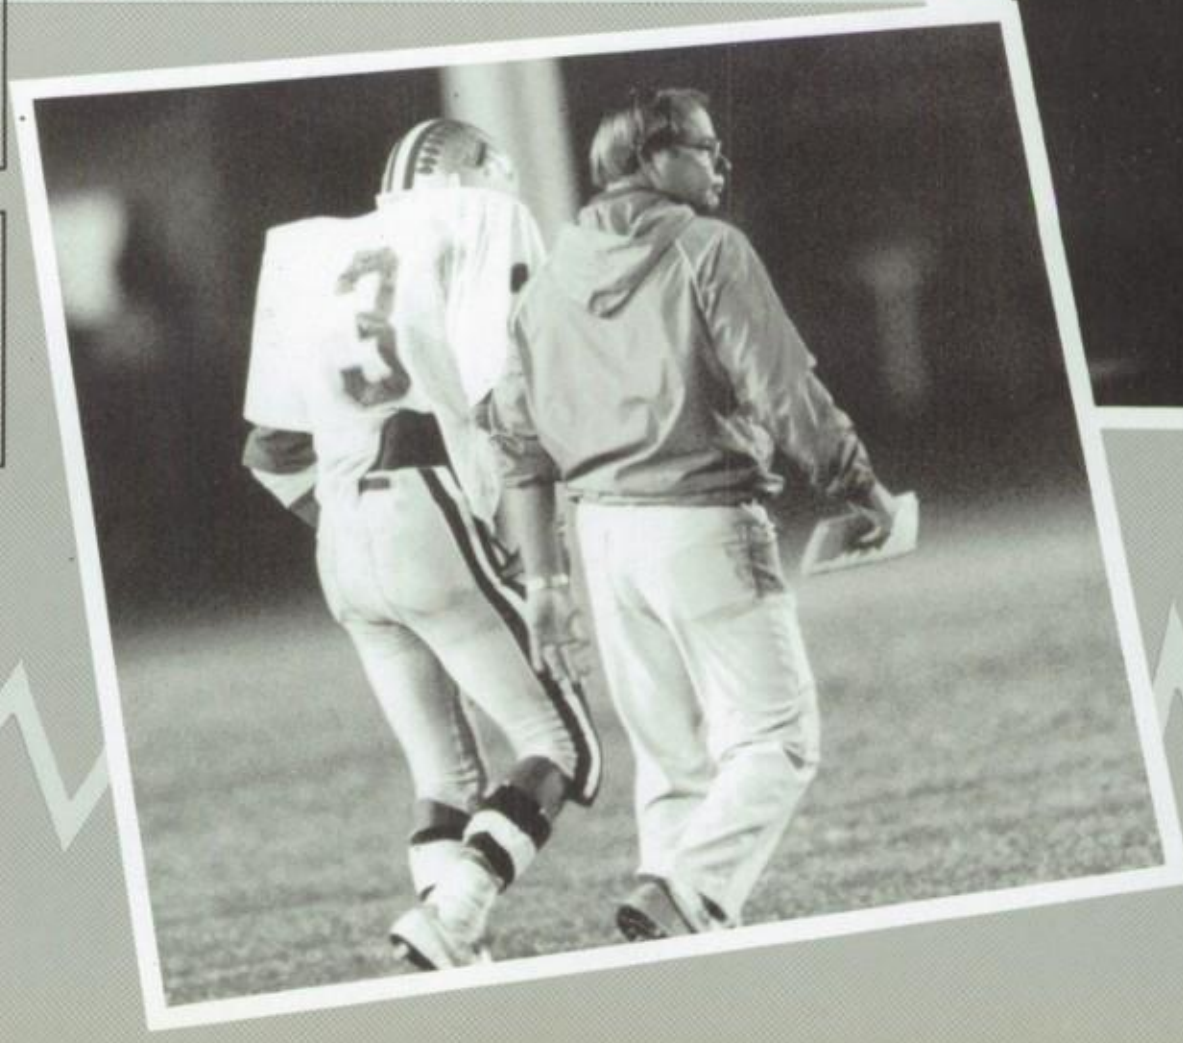
FACULTY

Faculty! Whether it was the caring coaching staff, understanding administrators, helpful office staff, or educating teachers, they were all there for us. PHS has the best faculty staff there is. The 1987-88 Mariner Faculty was a great team that helped each other with any problem that came about. Each did their job to benefit the school and the student body.

The faculty is filled with an assortment of ages and years of experience in the teaching profession. The assortment blended together in the best way possible; making all the puzzle pieces fit together in the most perfect way.





1.) Mr. Wise making his daily trash pick up. 2.) Coach Craven escorting an injured player off the field. 3.) Mr. Yoak explaining the Classification System in one of his Biology classes.

Dean DePeri graduated from Pacifica in 1968. He later graduated from Cal State Fullerton. Mr. DePeri has been happily married to his lovely wife, Kathy, for 15 years.

Mr. DePeri is a dedicated teacher, who has been teaching at Pacifica for 15 years. He is also an athletic director for Pacifica. Mr. DePeri is very active in our schools athletic sports. His favorite sports are Water Polo, and Swimming.

Mr. DePeri was actively involved in Mariners Who Care, which is a program to keep students from drinking and driving. Mr. DePeri started Mariners Who Care in 1984. "To many people have been killed. It really concerns me. A few years ago the Senior class President and a Water Polo player were killed on the same evening. In the future I hope to have all students join Mariners Who Care," said Dean DePeri.

When asked about retirement, Mr. DePeri simply replied, "I'll retire when I'm 70, or when I'm just too tired to be wheeled into class.

THE MEN BEHIND THE SCHOOL

Mr. Wise, also known as Donald Stuart Wise or just plain Don to his friends and family, completed his second year as principal at Pacifica High School.

Under his tutelage Pacifica has experienced a rebirth of excitement, school spirit, and performance. Mr. Wise not only is the innovator of these activities, but a participant as well. He has brought a sense of togetherness at Pacifica. He is admired and appreciated greatly. Mr. Wise is an action person, who gets things done.

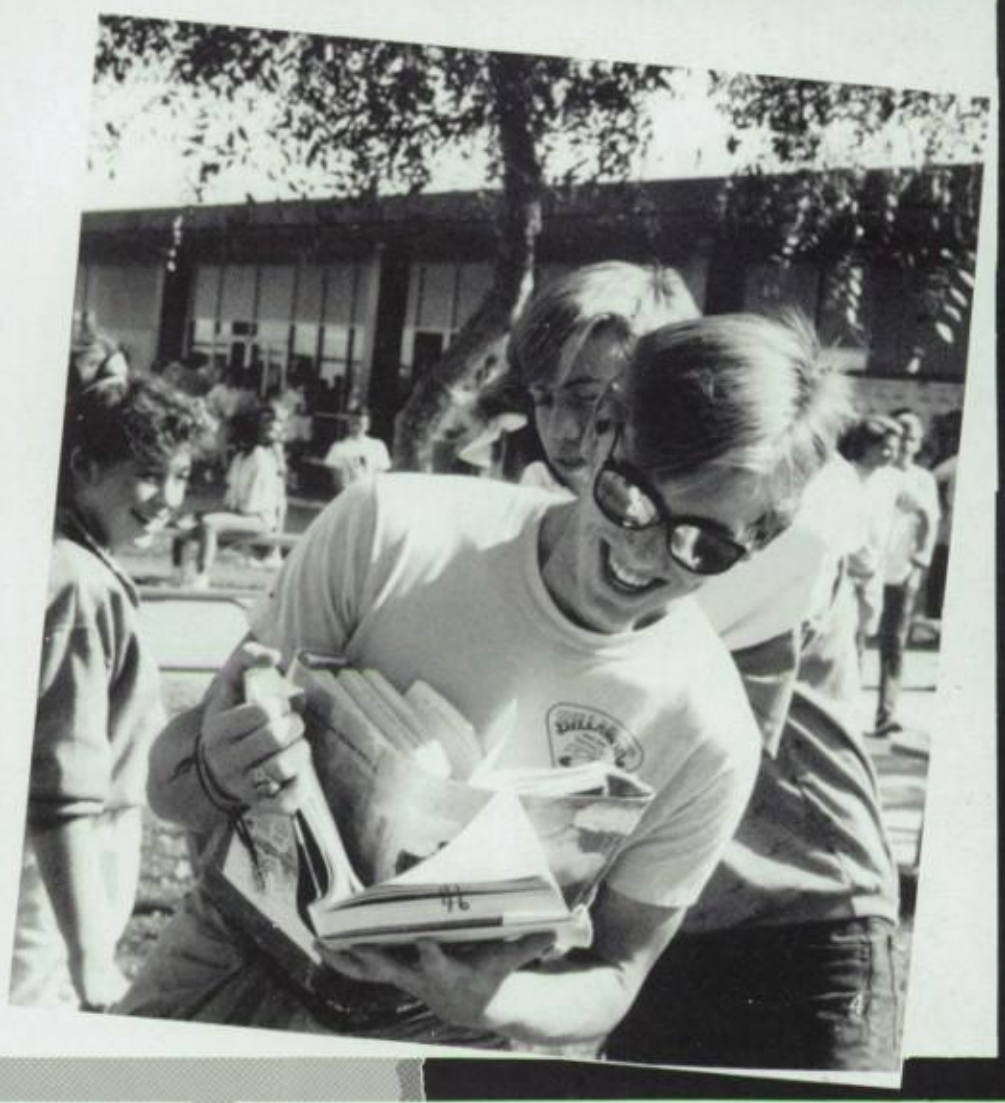
Friend to the end!

You first daydream of that "enormous" high school you pass everyday, and then you suddenly find yourself as just one in a pep assembly crowd. Socializing between and during classes, struggling through tough tests, attending a school activity, and yes, educating yourself makes a complete and typical year at Pacifica. However, there may be that special someone or even a driver's license to spice it up.

As you mature during these times, you will see your friends and daily schedules change. A realization then takes hold of you, that the four years are coming to a conclusion. Beginning to race through your mind, are flashbacks of the dances, the sporting events, lunchtime in the quad, and the weekend's entertainment.

Although you are anxious to pursue your future, a sense of sadness sweeps over you. This concerns the friendships you've acquired throughout the years, in which you hope will last for many years to come. Just remember to take care of yourself, and try to make the best judgements in all areas of your upcoming independence and adulthood.



1.) Senior-Freshmen tug-of-war team "Let's get physical." 2.) Hilary Kelsey and Devon Fitzpatrick "I got you babe." 3.) Jennifer Savage "Help I need somebody." 4.) Brian Teague "Help me I'm falling." 5.) Mike Hetrick and Rachel Aquillra "Lean on me." 6.) Jason Zambrana "I'm bad."

Farewell '88

A Seniors Goodbye

The time has come my friends, to say goodbye:
goodbye to pep assemblies and watching cheerleaders dance around, filled with school pride.
goodbye to all teachers no matter how good or bad.
goodbye to waiting for the lunch bell, then having to wait in line.
goodbye to all the football games goodbye to tormenting underclassmen goodbye to, and most of all, all my friends. The times we shared together, either they be good or bad. So goodbye my friends, and good luck where ever you may go.

ONE LAST LOOK

"Happy Birthday" you whispered and kissed me so sweetly
Your hands through my hair
you convinced me completely
That the words that you uttered were truly to me
And not some reusued lies
I chose not to see

You had me eating from the palm of your hand
You knew it, you loved it
you took me for granted.
But I loved you regardless of the games you would play.
I wished that my dream would be perfect; you'd stay. . .

1.) David Klein and Jessica McCoy — Together Forever. 2.) Anita Romero — socializing at lunch in the quad. 3.) Matt VanMatre — "I'm content with my candy Carlton cigarettes and milk." 4.) Sonya Encomienda and boyfriend — Scanning the quad for an empty table. 5.) Spencer Sausser and Steve Limer — Talk: concerning the weekend's plans.

My fairytale ended too fast
But, I'll never forget New Year's,
our past
The champagne, the late nights
the phone calls and such
The loving, the caring,
I miss your sweet touch.

It scares me to think these feelings must end.
I know if I let go, I won't feel them again.
But, the pain that I feel
when I think of our past
Convinces me to let go and forget you at last.

So go on your way, babe,
and find someone new
Do what you want
She'll fall for it too.
Just remember that you will continuously break
The heart of your playmate
if yours isn't at stake.

Neil,

Hey babe! Well, you'll be a sophomore next year! Thanks for going to the Co-ed with me. I had a really good time. Thank you. You are a real funny guy & I think you're really sweet. I'm glad we're friends. Well, I'll talk to ya later. Bye Dick!

Love,

*Donna+
